Hoopsters in Tip Top Shape for First Game

With the opening of basketball season just around the corner, Torrance High's new roundball mentor, Marty Pelka, has his Tartar varsity and jayvee hoopsters in tip top shape for the opener with Newport Friday in the THS gym.

Over 20 cage hopefuls have turned out for practice, which officially got under way Nov. 1, with returning lettermen Dale Mead, Russ and Ray Vanderpool, and third team All-Bay Leaguer Gene Crenshaw, all seniors, top candidates for first team berths.

Along with this quartet, showing plenty of promise for the coming season is little Phil Scholl tentatively on top of the list as a guard, with Mead. Up from last year's junior varsity squad are Lee Day, forward, who broke the team's scoring record for one game when he bucketed 28 against Serra in the opener, plus Scholl, Dave Skinner, Harlan Treskes, and Paul O'Kain.

Moving up from the Bees and showing ability with the basketball is Ray Beadle, while Dan Plante, Charlie Johnson, and Charlie White are newcomers to the local scene.

Last year's Tartar varsity finished second in the Bay League with a 9-3 record, and entered the CIF playoffs for the first time in THS history.

led by ALL-CIF forward, Rich Ruffell, who broke the school record and is now attending the University of Utah, and Jerry Matthews, now at Pepperdine, the team put Torrance on the map basketball-wise with their great play in league and tournaments.

New Gun Club Holds Initial Meet Tuesday

The first meeting of the Southwest Shooters' Gun Club will be held Tuesday, 8 p.m., at the A & S Sporting Goods, 1111 S. LaBrea, Inglewood.

Nomination and election of officers will be the main business of the evening.

The club is forming to aid all shooters in the area. This will take in rifle, shotgun, pistol shooters and those who just like to plink at bottles and tin cans. So far approximately 100 men have signed up as prospective members.

Those interested in guns and shooting are invited to attend. Many activities for the shooters are being planned for the future.

MEMORY LIMITS

Most adults cannot remember things that happened in their lives before they were 4 or 5 years old.

League Crown Tumbles As Santa Monica Wins From Hands of Tartars

By BILL SCHIPPER
Torrance's varsity footballers muffed their chances of winning the school's first Bay League championship and recording their first grid win over Santa Monica Friday night as the undefeated Vikings scored their fifth straight win in downing the Tartars 20-13 in a thriller the 10,000 fans who jammed Corsair Field on Homecoming night will be long time remembering. The homebreds gave the winners a battle all the way but failed to capitalize on the breaks that came their way, as Coach Dick Turner's Tartars suffered their first defeat of the campaign and finished runner-up with a 3-1 record, highest in the school's history.

Tarbabes Drop Curtain on '57 Football Play

Torrance High's Bee footballers dropped the curtain on their 1957 grid season Thursday when the Tarbabes bowed to a strong Santa Monica eleven 26-12 on the THS field.

Coach Howard Brubaker's local pigskinners finished their Bay League year with a 1-4 mark, one game ahead of last place Mira Costa. The visiting Vikebabs crossed the Tartar goal twice before halftime and coasted to victory in a second half battle that saw four touchdowns, two on each team, but it wasn't enough to topple the once-defeated Vikebabs.

Overall, the THS lightweighters compiled a 1-5-2 record playing with only one senior, Roxy Richards, captain and lineman. The team's offensive "horses" have been halfbacks Jack Rawnsly and Gary Rice, Fullback Joe Montgomery, and quarterback Howard Taylor, with linemen Larry Rose and Richards providing the holes to run through.

The final standings are:
Redondo 5 0 1
Santa Monica 5 0 0
Leuzinger 3 2 3
Inglewood 3 2 2
Torrance 1 4 5
Mira Costa 1 4 6

Matthews Racks Up High Scores At South Bay

Recently crowned singles champion, Merle Matthews and runner-up Bobbie Shaler, continue to rack up high scores in the Ladies' All Star Doubles at South Bay Bowling Center.

Last week, Merle had a big 265 game, and a series total for four games of 826. Bobbie shot games of 217, 247, 213 and 151, for an 828 series, high for the night. A total of 16 games over 200 was rolled, including a whopping 259 by Gwen Hyduke with her partner Bobbie, the new season high team score of 1826 was totaled. Chy Seidler, with two games over 200, racked up a series total of 824, which, good as it is, was only third high for the night.

These bowlers can be seen in action every Thursday night at South Bay, taking to the lanes at 9 p.m.

S. High GAA Organized as Charter Club

Organized as a charter club Oct. 2 of this year, South High's Girls Athletic Assn. now has 115 members—making it the largest single group at the new school.

Sandy Appleby has been named chairman and other officers are: Pat Kobzev, assistant chairman; Jan Geissler, secretary; Judy Allison, treasurer; Judi Tye, historian; reporter; Darlene Torgerson and Lynn Gish, sports managers; Evelyn Owings, recording secretary; Marie Acosta, Aggie San Paulo, Penny Grace, and Carol Mallory, yell leaders.

Currently, the coeds are participating in volleyball and tennis. Sports Days have been planned with Dominguez High School and at Chadwick School. Two banquets also are planned with the first to be an initiation dinner Dec. 5.

Spartans Close Grid Season as Lennox Wins

South High's Spartans wound up their first season of football with a perfect record of no wins.

The locals bowed Friday afternoon to Lennox by a lopsided 34-13 count.

Lennox made short work of the Spartans rolling off two touchdowns in the first quarter, talling two more in the second. To clinch the game they added another in the fourth.

South High waited until the fourth quarter before sending Ron Dreiling over for six points. Later in the final period Roger Smith added six more points, for the locals.

So. High Harriers Score Varsity Win

History was made Friday afternoon as South High rosters cheered their first varsity win.

When victory came—it came in a big way as the Spartan harriers soundly trounced the Lennox cross country team winding up with a lopsided 16-42 win.

South High, who has gone varsity winless in its first season, hosted the Lennox runners prior to the varsity football game held at Torrance High School stadium.

Coach Joe Stuart's fleet-footed men scampered the 1.8 mile course in record time, placing first, second, third, fourth and sixth.

Jim Perry, ace distanceman for the locals, broke the Torrance record with his 8.28 mark . . . some .4 seconds less than the previous record.

Dennis Rogan, who placed second, also broke the 9 minute mark with his 8.52 time.

Spartans placing were Otto Ledorf, Andy Harris, and Doug Nichols. Ernie Iwata and Steve Lovett came in eighth and eleventh for the team.

The jubilant Stuart will take his distanceman to Aviation High School next Friday, 3 p.m., when the Crescent League harrier champs will be decided.

Friday's encounter marked the first time this year that the locals have been at full strength. The flu bug took a heavy toll of the Saxons.

TEENAGERS INVITED TO LEARN TO PLAY GOLF

Teenagers who play golf or who would like to learn to play are invited to join the new coed Golf Club sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Terry Murphy of Torrance High, chairman of the committee planning for the new group has called an organizational meeting for Thursday at 4 at Sea Aire Park.

Teenagers are invited to attend and help make the plans for this group. Possible activities for the group are tournaments, instruction for beginners or advanced, trips and social activities.

Sea Aire Golf Course located on Reynolds Dr. off of Sepulveda is ideal for teenage play; golf clubs and special rates are available.
