

Festive Nativity Hall Greet Mothers at Christmas Fete

Nativity Hall was festive with holiday decorations when members of the Mothers Club gathered recently for the December meeting and annual Christmas party.

Bringing into focus all the aspects of Christmas, the program opened with a reading of Charles Tazewell's "The Littlest Angel" by Nativity School students Suzanne Lundeen and Celina Dean, with Altar boys Patrick Giacomini, Robert Loew, Thomas Andreoli and Thomas Bruce assisting.

Leading the carol singing which followed were members of Girl Scout Troop 610: Gloria Ziak, Kathy Strellich, Ellen Colton, Marsha and Coralie Ne-nenson, and Jean Franklin, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Tessie Murray. This group is sponsored by the Mothers Club and is under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Rock.

Laughter marked the reading of Mrs. Gregory Gordon's parody "The Night Before Christmas at Nativity Hall." Immediate Past President Mrs. Andrew M. Janasik, gave an interpretation which added to the enjoyment.

While Santa Claus distributed exchange gifts with the help of the Girl Scouts, delicious refreshments were served by the sixth grade mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Carlin.

A lovely sugar cube chapel in a winter setting was created and donated as a prize by Mrs. Harley W. Berning. The winner, Mrs. Daniel Moore, donated the chapel to the sisters who teach at Nativity School.

P T A ACTIVITIES

Harbor City

Harbor City PTA opened its Christmas meeting Tuesday, Dec. 10, with the pledge of allegiance led by the Girl Scouts of Troup 643 under the direction of Mrs. Dee Dudley.

Mrs. Dallas Wallick, the program chairman, introduced Miss Judy Spensley, B10 student from Narbonne High School, who spoke on the topic "The Bill of Rights, and What It Means to Me."

The Rev. Walter Graham of the Western Ave. Baptist Church, gave an inspirational message entitled, "Putting Christ Back Into Christmas." Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, then presented a Christmas film.

Mrs. Vera Newman's second grade students sang four Christmas songs, after which the fifth and sixth grade chorus sang a medley of six Christmas songs under the direction of Miss Manuela Matute and Mrs. Gertrude Crum. The chorus wore new robes made by the room mothers under the supervision of Mrs. Dee Dudley.

Mrs. James Alexander, president, introduced Mrs. Billie Fulford, president-elect, of the Park Western P. T. A. For the most parents present, Mrs. Vera Newman's room won the prize for the lower grades; John McClintock's and Francis Rush's tied for the upper grades. Hostesses for the pre-meeting refreshments were the kindergarten room mothers.

223rd Street

The 223rd Street School PTA got Christmas off to an early start with a Christmas party at the December board meeting, by hosting the council and the regular monthly meeting.

The board meeting was held at the Normandale playground the first part of this month and after the business meeting, gifts were exchanged and a pot-luck luncheon served.

The holiday theme was carried through at the Lomita-San Pedro Council meeting which the 223rd St. School PTA board hosted in the school auditorium.

At the regular meeting for December, the school children entertained with a Christmas program of Christmas songs, dancing and dramatization. Santa Claus also attended and presented to the school two phonographs which were purchased for the school's use by the PTA.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments decorated with Christmas colors were served.

FERN-GREENWOOD

Christmas customs of the various countries were explained by children of the Fern-Greenwood Elementary School last week at the Fern Ave. cafeteria during the annual Christmas program of the Fern-Greenwood PTA.

Children presented letters they had written describing the customs of "make-believe" relatives in different lands during the Christmas season.

Other Christmas-time presentations included the children's chorus, made up of second, third, and fourth grades, which sang Christmas songs

259th Place

Mrs. R. A. Stalmack and Mrs. R. E. Dunn, ways and means chairman of the 259th Place School PTA have extended thanks to all of the teachers, parents and friends that came to the "come and go salad buffet" held at the home of Mrs. Dan Bowling, recently.

Board members voted to give two Christmas baskets to needy families and members were asked to donate canned goods for the Christmas Cheer baskets.

It was announced that the 259th Place School would be hostess the Lomita-San Pedro Council on Jan. 7. Mrs. J. F. Carroll and Mrs. T. D. Trujillo were appointed chairmen for this luncheon. All board members are invited.

Mrs. J. W. Creager, president, advised the board members that the $55 Christmas gift to the school, bought material for 40 choir gowns, and that the school student body would take care of the sewing.

Jumping Jacks restaurant on Pacific Coast Hwy., was the meeting place of the 259th Place School PTA board, recently. After dinner, there was an exchange of white elephant gifts, completing a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. J. W. Creager, president, advised the board mem-

HOWARD WOOD

The Christmas program of the Howard Wood PTA was held on Thursday, Dec. 12, at 2 p.m., at the school cafeteria.

An inspirational song by the Mothersingers under the direction of Mrs. Jack Hoy and accompanied by Mrs. Richard Clutter.

Mrs. Edwin Smith, program chairman, introduced the Drama Club advisor, Mr. James Armstrong. The group presented the "Christmas Carol." The production was narrated by Charlene Alarcon and Loretta Kennedy. "Scrooge" was portrayed by Carol Porterfield while Dick Browne was Bob Cratchit. Others in the cast were Donna Meredith, Joy Drzakowski, Donna Tidmarsh, Joan Smith, Laurel St. Onge, Andrea Crow, and Virginia Hubbert.

The school orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn Wilde, played "Angels Heard on High," and "White Christmas." "Jingle Bells" was given by the rhythm band of the first grade with their teacher, Mrs. Mary Speer.

The chorus also sang "Jingle Bells," "Away in a Manger," "Frosty the Snow Man" and "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer."

While the parents were served festive cookies and open faced sandwiches by the kindergarten and first grade par-
