Randy Has A Birthday

Randy Saunders was the guest of honor at a gala party last Tuesday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Saunders, 5128 Merrill St. in celebration of his fourth birthday.

The children were presented with noisemakers and were served birthday cake, punch and candy.

Helping Randy celebrate were Nancy Lewis, Gigi and Jon Di Luzio, Robert and J. B. Miller, Robert Hamilton and Bobby Saunders.

Mrs. Saunders was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Di Luzio and Mrs. Robert Lewis.

Rummage Sale

Miriam Circle of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church will hold a rummage sale on Jan. 23, at the church. Sale hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mrs. William S. Morgan is chairman of this project.

... Ann Landers

and quiet around the house. That girl belongs in school. She's a minor and you are responsible for her.

If you and your husband let her use 15-year-old judgment in such a vital matter merely because you're tired of fighting with her, then you will fail her as well as yourselves.

Dear Ann: I sympathize with Sheepskin Sarah who complained about her husband's grammar.

I'm married to a woman who is a good wife and mother. But her poor English and hackneyed phrases irritate me just as Sarah's husband irritates her. You have no idea how boring it is to live with someone who 50 times a day says "I got news for you" or "Golly gee."

She talked like this before we were married so I guess I couldn't have been very bright either. Now I feel she's beneath me intellectually and I miss the companionship that intelligence offers. Should I be satisfied that she's a good mother and keeps the house clean?

I have a few friends who are in the same boat. Why do these things happen? — Sheepskin Sarah's Brother.

Dear Brother: These things happen because love is sometimes deaf as well as blind. You didn't care how the girl talked before you married her because you were more interested in how she looked.

Now that you ARE married and have a family—yes, be satisfied that she keeps the house clean and is a good mother. You bought the total package, Buster. (Are you listening, Students?)

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Safe," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problem. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

COVETED TROPHIES . . . Mrs. John Beckenholdt, president of the El Segundo Woman's club; Mrs. George Putman, president of Marina District 18, CFWC; and Mrs. John Thuss, district garden chairman, display the trophies to be awarded at the district Flower show to be held Jan. 22 at the El Segundo Woman's club. Only Marina district members may enter the competition to which the public is invited.

Trophies Chosen For Marina Show

Beautiful trophies have been selected to be awarded at the Marina District 18, CFWC, flower show to be held Jan. 22 at the El Segundo Woman's clubhouse, 541 Standard St., El Segundo, announced Mrs. John Thuss, Marina District Garden chairman.

The Garden Sections in the clubs of the Marina district are sponsoring the show. A silver tea will be held throughout the show hours with proceeds going to the Garden Sections' project for the year, "Pennies for Pine Plantation." This project is the reforestation of the burned out National Forests.

Since the inception of "Pennies for Pines" 17 years ago, more than $18,000 has been contributed, according to Mrs. Thuss. This year the clubs have given $2000 toward the nine plantations of timberland in the state.

At the District Flower Show, trophies and ribbon awards will be given for flower show entries including specimen blooms, flower arrangements, individual and club entries.

Only members of the Marina district clubs may enter the contest.

The public is invited to attend, Mrs. Thuss pointed out. The show hours are from 1 until 5 p.m.

Door prizes will be given on the hour. In keeping with the theme a juniper tree glistening with bright new pennies will be the tea table centerpiece.

Individual juniper corsages will be given to each guest attending.

Mrs. Cecil Cooper, garden section chairman of the El Segundo Woman's club, and Mrs. John Thuss will be on hand to greet the guests.

CHARTING THEIR COURSE . . . These new officers of the Nativity Altar society look over the schedule for the coming year. They were elected at a meeting last week. They are, from left, Mrs. D. J. Hughes, president; Mrs. R. L. Oliver, vice president; Mrs. A. J. Shanley, secretary; and Mrs. Del Catena, treasurer.

Annual Meet Slated for Tomorrow

The 25th annual meeting of the United Church Women of Southern California—Southern Nevada will be held in the Wilshire Methodist Church, Wilshire and Plymouth, Los Angeles on Jan. 16 from 9:30 until 3 p.m.

The theme will be "United Church Women Uniting in Witness." Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president of the National Council of Churches, will be the afternoon speaker.

Each person is asked to take a sack lunch. Coffee will be provided by the hostess church.

A meeting of the Torrance-Lomita Area United Church Women's Executive board was held Jan. 14 at the home of Mrs. M. M. Schwab, president.

At this time, plans were completed for the World Day of Prayer on Feb. 13. This will be held at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

Altar Society Installs In Impressive Service

Newly elected officers of the Nativity Church Altar Society were installed in an impressive candlelight ceremony at the regular business meeting on Jan. 5. They are Mrs. Joseph Hughes, president; Mrs. Richard L. Oliver, vice-president; Mrs. Andrew J. Shanley, secretary; and Mrs. Michael R. Catena, treasurer.

Included in the ceremony were the 12 guild chairmen responsible for the care and decoration of the altars during their respective months: Mrs. Walter Cason, January; Mrs. F. A. Cameron, February; Mrs. Joseph Cernore, March; Mrs. Corwin Dean, April; Mrs. Harry F. Kale, May; Mrs. Robert Moffitt, June; Mrs. James Conlon, July; Mrs. Joseph Hughes, August; Mrs. John Tweedy, September; Mrs. Cregg Gordon, October; Mrs. Gerald Loew, November and Mrs. Elles Cook, December.

High point of the ceremonies was reached as the hall was darkened with the new officers and chairmen on stage, each with a lighted candle, forming a large cross, while Mrs. Lyle O'Hara sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Eagar.

The investment ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Corwin Dean after appropriate corsages had been presented the officers-elect by the nominating committee chairman, Mrs. M. J. Boudreaux.

Rev. Joseph McArdle in an inspirational talk, thanked the outgoing officers for a job well done with a moment of their service and welcomed the new officers. Upon taking charge of the business meeting, the new officers appointed Mrs. Clayton Bowen, sunshine chairman; Mrs. Corwin Dean, publicity chairman and Mrs. Salvatore Felix, historian. Plans were developed for a new membership drive which will be completed during the next regular meeting Wednesday, Feb. 4 at 8 p.m. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Walter Selfridge, Mrs. Joseph Hughes, and Mrs. Harry F. Kale. Mrs. Michael McMahon won the grand prize.

Buffet refreshments were served amid decorations reminiscent of eastern winter scenes by the May and November guilds. Mrs. Gerald Loew was in charge.

Fete Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shaw recently entertained with a cantonese dinner at The Polynesian Restaurant in Walthers in honor of their daughter, Miss Susan Shaw, who was returning to New York and her position as collegiate editor of Mademoiselle Magazine. The party also included the hosts' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Shaw.
