A TREAT FOR THE BOSSES . . . Virginia Beck, district recording secretary; Bess Tufts, dinner chairman; and Tessa Burk, co-chairman, plan the dinner to suit their bosses whom they have invited to hear Rear Admiral Frank Higbee. The dinner is being given by the local Business and Professional Women at the Jump'n Jack restaurant next Monday evening, Jan. 19.

World War II, Admiral Higbee earned a distinguished war record in the Pacific Amphibious Force. During the evening, the Admiral will display a new 10 minute colored motion picture of harbor activities.
All Business and Professional Women's Clubs in the South Bay district, as well as Civil Defense directors and city officials, are invited to attend. For information and reservations, call Frances Clark.

Harry Van Bellehem, head of the Torrance Recreation Department for the past five and a half years, will explain the free recreational facilities available in the city at tonight's meeting of the Hillside PTA.

Mr. Tony Santaella, chairman of the PTA recreation committee who arranged the program, pointed out that Mr. Van Bellehem's talk will be centered largely around free facilities and activities in which the entire family may participate.

Mr. Van Bellehem's talk will be
