MRS. CELIA PONS
... Makes Major Contribution

Mrs. Celia Pons Reveals Second Hospital Gift

Support for the new Little Company of Mary hospital at Torrance Blvd. and Earl St. in Torrance has come from all faiths, although the hospital will be operated by a Catholic order.

Further demonstration of this fact was contained in a recent announcement that Mrs. Celia Pons, Torrance business woman, had made her second contribution to the hospital as a memorial to her gift when the hospital is opened.

Well known in Los Angeles for her philanthropy, Mrs. Pons is the widow of Max Pons, former Torrance manufacturer and businessman.

MRS. PONS and her late husband fled to California from their native Germany in 1937 to escape the Nazi purge of the Jews. Last summer after returning from a visit to Germany, Mrs. Pons said "I love America for taking us in, and to the last day of life, I will not forget it."

Her contributions to the local hospital are one way of showing this gratitude, she pointed out.
