Lomita Royal Neighbors Seat New Officer Panel

Delnora Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, installed its new officers in an impressive ceremony at the California Hall, 1932 Pacific Coast Hwy., in Lomita on Jan. 27. Iris Brumbelow was seated as new oracle, succeeding Joyce Nansel.

Installed with her were: Lillie Caudle, vice oracle; Joyce Nansel, past oracle; Virginia Shekell, chancellor; Nellie Sorrell, recorder; Bertha Westphal, receiver; Lola Serpa, marshal; Grace Morgison, assistant marshal; Irene McPeak, and Lula Stafford, sentinals; Marie Anderson, Marie Crecelius and Mae Perry, managers; Francis Jenkins, musician; Hattie Wane, flag bearer.

Others were Zella Butterfield, sunshine; Hermena Fett, captain degree; Mildred Taylor, ways and means; Rose Johanson, publicity.

Installed as the five grades were Neomi Nansel, faith; Gertrude Schrieber, courage; Fern Thompson, modesty; Margie McFall, endurance; Mildred Wolford, unselfishness.

Christiana Hamel, state supervisor served as the installing officer. She was assisted by Mary Louise Coen, district deputy; Euphina Biem, assistant marshal; Edith Browne, chancellor; Pearl Peterson, inner sentinal; Bernice Goodan, musician.

Seating the officers in the respective stations were members from a Compton escort team, Bedelia Walker, Dee Mathias, Irene Meyers, and Bernice Mucklow. Each of the officers wore a corsage of white lace and purple flowers. The camp colors of purple and white were carried out in the table decorations. Refreshments were served by Rose Hanson and Selma Alto.

Joyce Nansel was presented with a past oracle pin.

Carrying lanterns a group of oracles marched as Virginia Shekell, president, welcomed Mrs. Nansel to the club. Rose Johanson, publicity chairman, presented her with a scrap book.

"Hard Times" Dance Held

Senior Girl Scout Troop 1299 sponsored by Business and Professional Woman's Club held a Hard Times dance Saturday night. The members and their escorts came cleverly dressed carrying out the theme of the dance. The hall was attractively decorated with tin cans, streamers and slightly used crepe paper.

Games and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Those attending were: Donna Arrasmith, Bobby Bloomer, Tommy Hammack, Mary Margaret Blount, Manford Mainer, Barbara Campbell, Larry Drury, Diana Cook, John Bentwood, Dyann Davey, Tom Shaver, Gerry Day, Stan Gonta, Larry Probert, Marsha Hunt, Gary Pfingston, Denise Hunter, David Hill, Diane Hunter, Ken Pevic, Ginny Krauszer, John Sherfey, Sharon Ricci, Jim Standridge.

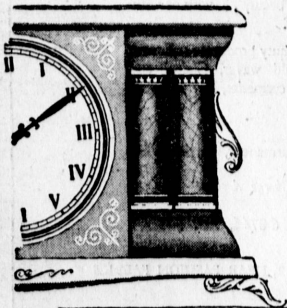

The troop had a meeting at the home of their Scout Leader Mrs. A. Krauszer. Once a month the girls have the pleasure of listening to a speaker on a vocation in which they are interested. Thursday evening, Mrs. Ruth Shrum, president of their sponsoring club, was the speaker. Her talk was on secretarial work as a profession. Mrs. Clara Conner was also a guest and helped organize the "Polio Dime on the Line" drive which the girls held downtown Friday afternoon. The highlight of the evening was the awarding of ten year guards to Loretta Robison and Diane Hunter. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Charlotte Percy and Mary Margaret Blount.
