New Greyfriar Presbyterian Building Sketches Presented

PRESENTS CHURCH PLANS...Dr. David Calderwood shows plans for the new Greyfriar Presbyterian Church to Mrs. Joseph Harvey (left) and Mrs. John Forbes. The plans were shown to members of the congregation at a special meeting last evening. It will be the first Presbyterian church edifice in the city. (Herald Photo)

Complete drawings and sketches, prepared by Lewis Gamble and Assoc. of Long Beach, featuring a Fellowship Hall, Main Sanctuary, and Sunday School rooms, were presented to the congregation of the Torrance Greyfriars Prespyterian Church at their monthly "pot luck" dinner held at 6:30 p.m. in the Sea-Aire Park Community Building Lupine and Reynolds Roads on last evening.

Robert Wood, of Gamble and Assoc., made the presentation. The new church will be located on a recently purchased site, near Riviera Hospital, on Ocean Ave. in Torrance.

PASTOR OF THE church, Dr. David Calderwood, told reporters he was elated over the progress and presentation because it is the culmination of a two year effort on the part of the planning committee of he church, composed of active members whose dedication is responsible for making the new church a reality.
