San Diego Sets Fishing Derby

Opening date for the 13th annual $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby will be March 28, it will consist of three eight-week sections with a fishoff for major prizes to follow each, and popular changes in qualifying rules will be in force, it was reported today by Mel Aubrey, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce derby committee.

The 150 anglers taking high weight yellowtail or albacore-bluefin tuna in a period will be eligible to enter a fishoff prizes to be topped by a station wagon. This list of eligible anglers will be determined on a percentage basis, taking into consideration the total number of yellow and of albacore or bluefin tuna or both caught during the qualifying round.

First period—begins March 28, ends May 17. Fishoff on Friday May 22.
Second period—begins May 18, ends July 19. Fishoff on Friday, July 24.
Third period—begins July 20, ends Sept. 13. Fishoff on Saturday, Sept. 19.

Although Americans do not as yet eat as much cheese as do people in some other countries, they eat about twice as much as they did 20 years ago.

Elcam Gymnasts To Open Season

El Camino College will open its 1959 gymnastics seasons in its new Gymnastics room to-morrow against Los Angeles City College and Los Angeles State at 3:00 p.m.

Coach Don Jurk commented, "Our new Gymnastics room is as good, if not better, as any other in Southern California. We have the best equipment and have seating for 100 people and will be competing against some of the finest stars in Southern California."

With only one returning letterman, Bob Atkins, the fu-

Little League Benefit Dance

North Torrance Little League Auxiliary will hold its annual benefit dance Saturday at 9:00 p.m. The dance will be held at the Garden Elks Hall, 1735 Market St., Gardena. Tommy Dragna's orchestra will furnish the music.

Proceeds from the dance will go for the building of an additional ball diamond to be located adjacent to the present Dominguez field.

In Los Angeles State and Los Angeles City College, the Warriors will be facing two of the top teams in California. Los Angeles City College is famed for its tremendous gymnastics teams, while Los Angeles State has its top stars back from a top-rate team last season.
