The Eleventh Frame
 By DONNA BARKDULL

Action in Bowl-O-Drome's First Annual President's Doubles Sweeper, scorching the popular lanes right down to the last squad, ended another Schreiber event with the guaranteed $750 prize pot going over the top.

Pretty powerful scores, racked up during the closing hours, but none of the competing double combinations succeeded in knocking Massey Deprey and P. Moreland from first place position held with their whopping 1337 duel effort. Kegling champs pocketed the main hunk of loot from the two-week affair, $316 instead of the $250 guaranteed for first in the doubles.

SHELDON HIPPO and George Welch scattered the pins for a rousing 1313 tally taking second and collecting $231.25. Copping third and $156.15 was Bill Moad and S. Iseri for their combined 1310 three game totals while a couple of Bowl-O-Drome regulars, Gary Shore and George Shibus, connected for 1307 to share the $120 fourth place money. Fifth and sixth in the doubles column, amounting to $180 shared by H. Carlson and John Faggus, B. O'Conner and S. Pallas, each pair coming up with 1302 on the scoreboard as A. Marzich and S. A. Keck tossed out an even 1300 effort for 7th spot and $45.

Jackie Dykes, who sinks the scales to about 105 pounds, had Bowl-O-Drome wood fly-

North Hi Nine Drop Tilt to John Muir, 7-1

John Muir High of Pasadena handed the North High Saxons their third loss of the current baseball season in as many starts Tuesday afternoon on the home diamond by defeating the NHS nine, 7-1.

Barry Hancock played the title role in the drama, collecting three runs on as many singles. The Muir horseholders scored three runs in the first half of the first inning when Tamura, Cannon and Hancock belted out singles and came around to score. The Muir nine added another to their growing lead in the third inning when Hancock collected his second run.

Dave Marsden broke the ice for the Saxons in the fourth inning as he clipped Don Mitchell for a home run, the only North score of the game. It was the first run the Saxons have scored in competition this year.

The Muir crew added three more runs to their final score in the last inning when Hancock again got on base with an error charged to the Saxon second baseman. Paul and Stein came up with a double and a single respectively to make the final score of 7-1.

ing all over with her new 16 pound bomb when she latched to her all time high scratch set of 598, latching onto the top notch in the gals scratch division, good for $25, besides winding up with a scorching 712 with handicap to claim first place honors and $160.70 in the optional singles with handicap division.

VON BERGEN pocketed $120.80 second place money in the singles for his eye-raising (to him too) 710 tally, while D. LaDouceur netted $80.70 and third spot honors with 707 and the $50 first in the mens scratch, recording a tremendous 710 for his three pin splintering games.

Fourth in the singles with handicap was snatched by Bill Moad with an even 700 and good for $40, while Donna Darkdull collected $20 coming in second in the gals scratch with 552, as Carmen Fuscardo pitched a neat 547 for third and $15.

A. Marzich connected for an impressive 671, and the $25 second place mens scratch green-stuff while the powerful 663 set, uncorked by George Welch claimed third and $15.

As of press time, only a couple of more averages to go the checking route before results can be claimed official.
