

Auxiliary Hears Author

Arthur L. Jones of Long Beach, retired merchant whose book, "My Unseen World," was published last year and is now on sale in all bookstores, was the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary held Tuesday at the Palms.

Mr. Jones spoke on the problems confronting a hope-

Mrs. Paul Roettger, president, conducted a business meeting at which time reports from chairmen were heard.

Mrs. W. C. Boswell, chairman of the auxiliary's annual Valentine ball, reported that a profit of $2600 had been made on this year's ball. Plans for next year's affair were also discussed.

A nominating committee for new officers was elected. Mrs. James C. Anderson will serve as chairman. On the committee are Mmes. John Schwartz, Eugene Cook, R. Bingham and William Taylor.

This committee will make its report at the April meeting and officers will be elected in May.

Mrs. Gerald Eastman, chairman of the "Pinky" puppet project, asked for volunteers to make the pullets which are furnished to hospitalized children patients at the Torrance Hospital. She reported that 120 puppets are needed each month.

Visiting Here

Visiting here for three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Warnock, 3241 Opal St. is Mrs. Warnock's aunt, Mrs. Elmer Harris of New Jersey and Nova Scotia. Mrs. Harris is the wife of the author of "Johnny Belinda." Last Sunday the Warnocks and their guest drove to Santa Barbara, where they visited Mrs. Warnock's mother, Mrs. Maude Reed.

Shower Fetes Mrs. L. Lamb

Mrs. Luther Lamb was honored by a baby shower given last Monday evening by Mrs. Ed Roberts and Mrs. Roland Cannon at the Roberts home, 4224 W. 173rd St.

The hostesses used a green, yellow and white color theme for the party. The gifts were presented in a decorated bassinet and a large cake in the shape of a baby bonnet and booties formed the table centerpiece.

Las Colinas

Las Colinas Garden Club will meet April 6 at the home of Mrs. Sidney Hall. Charlotte Maben will speak on "Driftwood and Native California Arrangements" and "Flower Show Rules."

Mothers Club Plans Style Show April 4

"Sailing Into Summer" is the theme chosen by the Nativity Mothers club for its mother-daughter tea and pre-teen fashion show to be held in the Terrace room at the new Broadway Del Amo store on April 4.

All the new fashions and colors for the coming season will be shown.

The new "starburst" pattern in a 50 piece Franciscan dinnerware set will be given as a door prize. For the pre-teen door prize, the Broadway store is giving a four weeks charm course.

Mrs. J. Fornelli is taking reservations which will close on March 24.

Carolyn Tidball Becomes Bride of Norman Frizzell

In the First Assembly of God, Church in Gardena at 8 o'clock on March 14, Miss Carolyn Tidball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Tidball, 1155 W. 210th St., Torrance, exchanged her wedding vows with Norman Frizzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Frizzell, 2037 W. 164th St.

White stock decorated the chancel of the church for the double ring candlelight wedding.

Mrs. Gerald Smythe, wearing lavender lace and carrying a yellow carnation cascade was the matron of honor. Miss Gloria Tidball, in a yellow lace gown and carrying a shower bouquet of lavender carnations, was the bridesmaid.

Linda Tidball was the flower girl. Her floor length dress was of white lace and net and she carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Terry Faughey was the ring bearer.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a formal gown of white lace and satin. The fitted bodice of lace over satin had a round neckline and long sleeves. Ruffles of lace encircled the full skirt. A pearl cap held the illusion veil and the bride carried a shower of white carnations and stephanotis encircling white orchids.

Walter Schultz was best man and ushers were Garland and Howard Frizzell.

Charlotta Eckland, at the organ, accompanied Doris and Dorothy Herman who sang "I Love You Truly."

The Rev. William Lamar officiated at the marriage. A reception was held at the Victory church.

After their honeymoon the couple will be at home at 16319 S. Broadway.

Both of the newlyweds were graduated from Gardena High school. Mr. Frizzell is employed at the Broadway Del Amo.

starches, fats and sweets.

She claims she eats hardly enough to keep a bird alive. At dinner she always makes a point that she eats less than our 8-year-old son. And to be perfectly honest with you—she does. I can't figure this out. Can you?—HER HUSBAND

Dear Husband: When a person is overweight and the doctors can find nothing wrong, it means only one thing—the body is taking in more food than it needs.

I'm no doctor and I'm no detective either—so I can't tell you how your wife is getting that extra food into her mouth. One thing is certain, however, she manages it somehow.

Some women snack all day, unconsciously. When dinner rolls around they eat very little. Often they "taste" as they cook, and the 10 or 12 spoonful of beans (100 calories) goes uncounted. When they clear away the dishes, they eat left-overs because it's "not enough to put away" and "too good to throw out."

Around bedtime they get ravenous and fix a liverwurst sandwich. (They forget about this.) Also they forget about the candy they nibbled on during the day.

The body counts the calories, even if "lardy" doesn't. The results show up on the scale. If your wife honestly wants to lose weight, she must put herself in the hands of a doctor, go on HIS diet, and quit making excuses for her fat self.

Confidentially to: DEPRESSED DIVORCEE. Children of divorced parents are often torn by conflicting emotions. Don't make matters worse by talking against his new wife. Let them form their own opinions.
