Harry Baty Due Back at Polynesian

Harry Baty and "The Polynesian," one of the most outstanding Hawaiian instrumental groups on the mainland and in the islands, will be among the entertainers who will perform at the "Aloha To Hawaii" luau, Sunday, May 3, at the Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance.

The recording and nitery artists have also been set by Pete Reitz, manager-owner of The Polynesian, to entertain nightly at the re-built restaurant when the dining area is re-opened May 4, following the day-long festivities of the outdoor luau.

Recently featured on the Dinah Shore NBC-TV Show, musicians are currently entertaining at one of Las Vegas' swank resort hotels.

Reservations for the gala luau and for regular dinner service can now be made by telephoning the Polynesian.

WIN TOURNAMENT

B. J. McIntyre of 17091 Illinois St. won the mens doubles championship together with a Los Angeles man at the recent Spring table tennis tournament at Alondra Park. Mike Keeffe, 3713 W. 168th St. was among the winners in the boys' division.
