

J. P. Hogan to Head Occidental Branch Office

John P. Hogan has been named to head the new Torrance branch office of Occidental Life Insurance Co. of Calif., it was announced today. Hogan has been associated with Occidental since 1952, for the past three years as assistant manager of the company's branch office in Westchester, Born in County Louth, Ireland, Hogan attended Mt. Carmel High School in Los Angeles, and is a graduate of Loyola University. He served for three years in the Navy during World War II.

Shop to Note Anniversary

Steve's Pipe and Tobacco Shop, 1813 S. Catalina, will celebrate its first anniversary at the Hollywood Riviera address this week end.

Attention was focused on the shop recently when a group of civic boosters planning the Konya Day celebration used it as a headquarters for smoking a Turkish water pipe.

Owner of the shop is Steve Lasko, a resident of the South Bay area for the past 15 years. Lasko, who is active in the American Legion and the Chamber of Commerce, operated his first pipe shop in New Jersey for more than 20 years.

Turns Down Zone Request

An application of an Inglewood woman for a change of zone from light agricultural to unlimited commercial on eight acres of land located between Figueroa St. and the proposed Harbor Freeway right of way on both sides of 223rd St. in the Carson Zoned District was turned down last week by the Regional Planning Commission.

The commission ruled that the property involved be rezoned multiple residence after the necessary right of way for 223rd St., adjacent to the property, is acquired by the County of Los Angeles.

A public hearing before the Board of Supervisors must be held before this change of zone becomes effective, the commission stated.

Owner of the property, which is in the form of two rectangular parcels, is Willemina Marquis of 512 E. Buckthorn, Inglewood.
