

CHECK STOCK . . . Taylor Bumbalough, clerk; Victor Butler, clerk; Howard Quigle, manager; Hal Merryman, division supervisor; and Cal Gilbert, meat department manager, make final plans for the Carson and Western Safeway store's big "S" sale to start Monday and continue throughout the week. The western roundup of bargains will be featured in all departments, with free pony rides for young buckeroos Friday. (Herald photo)

SURPRISE! SURPRISE! . . . Irving "Tommy" Thompson was greeted with these words Thursday morning as the retiring postman delivered mail for the last time at the home of Mrs. A. J. DeFields, 1411 Crenshaw. Neighbors in the block are pictured as they gathered around the genial mail carrier, who has been on Route 106 for 11 years and retired April 30. Besides cake and coffee Thompson received $70 from his friends and the use of a mountain cabin for a week's vacation from Bess Watson. (Herald photo)

Foreign Students Impressions of America

American Field Service got out of style here. On the other hand, Miss Achenbach was told in Sweden that her hosts had half expected her to be a gum-chewing, fast-talking American teenager.

Lions President Sam Van Wagner presented the check to Dieter Seiler and Per Svanevik, students from Germany and Norway respectively, for continuation of the local foreign exchange student program.

Following the presentation, Seiler and Svanevik teamed up with Rozanne Hathaway and Pat Achenbach, Torrance students who studied in Greece and Sweden last summer, to compare impressions of life on Europe and America.

The foursome agreed that America's pace of life is much faster than Europe's but not as much faster as the impression given by magazines, papers, and movies.

"WE SEEM to get a picture of the extremes," Seiler said. "I rather thought that everybody here was either a movie star or a hoodlum in a leather jacket."

Svanevik noted that before coming here he believed that Americans went out every night dancing or "partying." He was surprised to find that the jitterbug, currently popular in Norway, has largely gone
