

FUN IN THE SUN . . . Torrance Rotary Club members and their wives spent a weekend at the Golden Palm Villa in Palm Springs, owned by the Ray Larsons, former Torrance residents. Time at the resort was spent playing shuffleboard, swimming, shopping in the village, attending a cocktail party and visiting the night spots. Just before beginning a day of fun this group posed for a photographer. They are, from left: front row, Mmes. Donald Armstrong, Russell Lund, John Whittington, Gerald Alter, Don Meyer; Mr. Jack Schmidt, president of the Rotary club; Mmes. Jack Schmidt, William

Shawger, Sam Levy, Charles Jones, A. E. Thompson and Wally Haas. Back row, from left: John Tweedy, Russell Lund, Gerald Alter, Bob Lewellen, Don Meyer, Donald Armstrong, John Foley, Charles Jones, Glenn Koger, Sam Levy, A. E. Thompson, Mrs. Eula Larson, William Shawger, Mrs. Bob Lewellen, Mrs. John Tweedy, Wally Haas and Ray Larson. Others making the trip were Dr. and Mrs. John Beeman, Messrs. and Mmes. Charlie Babbitt, Hal Mellen and James McMillan. John Alter and Wayne Whittington accompanied their parents on the desert trip.

ORIENTAL CHARM . . . Chafing dishes filled with chow mein are served by Mrs. Joseph Boylan (left) and Mrs. Donald DeCuir (right) to guests attending the benefit given by the St. Gerard Guild at the Boylan home. Guests seated on pillows around the table are, from left, Mmes. Leo Salisbury, Robert H. Miller and Donald Whitman. An authentic oriental decor was used by the hostesses.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"Your Sister Is A Needle Artist"

Dear Ann Landers: The other night at my sister's house we got into a discussion about women who dye their hair. I made the remark "I thought it was wonderful that Emma (my wife) is 53 and does not have a gray hair in her hair."

It was then my sister said "Emma has been dyeing her hair for years, Stupid." I defended Emma and told my sister she was crazy. She bet me $5 that she was right and I was wrong.

When I got home I asked Emma straight out. She said my sister was right. Now I feel like a big fool. Shouldn't my wife have told me years ago what she was doing so I wouldn't be embarrassed like this?—BARNEY

Dear Barney: I see no reason for your wife to have told you that she's been "dyeing" (please, that word "dyeing" is so funereal her hair. Many women do it, and there's no need to report every time the process takes place.

(P.S.—Your sister is a needle artist—and a cat.)

Dear Ann Landers: I'm jealous—so jealous I can't see straight. And of whom? A woman wrote to you and signed her letter "Just Tired". She complained because her husband insisted on coming home for lunch every day.

I would like to say to this woman: I don't know what you've got that I haven't, but, Sister, I salute you. A wife who can make her husband want to see her in the middle of the day is a howling success.

I missed the boat somehow. I'm lucky if my husband comes home to sleep. Don't ask me where he goes. The only thing I know for sure, is he's NOT home with me.

Maybe I tried too hard to please my man. I've heard it said a man likes a little earnestness in his woman. He loses interest if she's too sweet and giving. But that's my nature and I can't change. I'd still give, if there was somebody around. But there isn't—not for breakfast, lunch or dinner. I'll just sign this letter—Have Problems, Will Trade—With Anybody.

Dear Have Problems: One interesting thing about problems is everybody has 'em, in one form or another. And no one can trade with the next person. One philosopher said if all of us could hang our troubles on a clothes line, and a great downpour began, everyone would run out and grab his own.

Dear Ann Landers: Our teenage daughter came home (Continued on Page 13)

Taught Piano Here

Mrs. Bellini Listed In 'Who's Who'

Mrs. Teala Bellini of Twin Falls, Idaho, formerly of Torrance, has been listed in the first edition of "Who's Who of American Women," a biographical dictionary of 20,000 notable living American women.

Mrs. Bellini, her husband, Robert, and one daughter resided at 1304 Portola in Torrance until 1944, when they moved to Idaho. During her 25-year residency here, Mrs. Bellini was well known in music circles and taught piano.

B.T. Whitney Home Setting For Benefit

Mrs. B. T. Whitney and Mrs. W. C. Boswell were hostesses at a dessert bridge party Wednesday at the Whitney home on Via Frascati in Palos Verdes. The affair was a benefit for the Torrance Woman's club.

In the bridge games following the serving of a dessert, the first prize was won by Mrs. Paul Loranger. Mrs. Dean Sears was second.

After the bridge games, the guests enjoyed a swim in the Whitney pool.

The guest list for the party included: Mmes. Roy Adams, M. A. Bauman, E. C. Cook, Ruby Dix, Laura Felker, Paul Loranger, John Melville, Mel Millar, Allen Pyeatt, John Oursler, Alma Smith, John Sears, and Delbert Thomsen.

Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Beecher and children, John, Stuart and Nancy, 1024 Felbar, are planning to leave the middle of June for a two weeks vacation with Mrs. Beecher's parents in Minneapolis, Minn.

Las Madrecitas Plans Champagne Tea May 7

Champagne tea is planned for prospective members of Las Madrecitas, South Bay auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopedic Hospital, on Thursday afternoon, May 7.

The invitational event will be held at the home of Mrs. Benjamin W. Kuhn, the group's first vice president, at 29 Chuck Wagon Road, Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Ernest Dahlman, Jr., president, announces that the Mmes. Phil Steinberg and David Levine, both of Hollywood Riviera, will act as co-chairmen of the tea.

Name tags to be worn by members and guests will be miniature spring bonnets of pastel satin. Baskets of spring flowers will carry out the "Springtime" theme.

Assisting with arrangements will be Mmes. Robert S. Cameron, Dahlman, Richard Egan, Marshall Finck, Robert Fried-

Mr. Bellini was employed by Columbia Steel.

Mrs. Bellini is listed in the new book as a concert pianist and teacher. She made her debut at Aeolian hall in New York City in 1920. Following that she performed on concert tours in New York City, the northeastern states and the western states beginning in 1924.

She was faculty member of the Julius Hart school of music from 1916 to 1921. She was at the St. Mary's academy in Los Angeles from 1928 to 1929 and operated a piano studio in Torrance from 1929 to 1944.

She has continued teaching in Twin Falls. Mrs. Bellini is a member of the National Teachers Guild and an author of articles dealing with music and music education.

Two Foreign Visitors Here

In conjunction with the International Hostessing program of the Junior Woman's club, Mrs. Clifford Trezise, chairman, two foreign visitors were entertained in Torrance last Saturday. They were Mrs. Homaria Hamidi, principal of the Malalal Girls school in Kabul, Afghanistan, and Mrs. Mariam Shah, home economics teacher at the Girls Lycee of Zarghuna, also in Kabul.

The two visitors were met in Los Angeles by Mrs. John Schwartz and were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schultwitz, 22639 Dralle Dr.

MRS. TEALA BELLINI . . . Wins Recognition

A MAY DAY TEA . . . Looking forward to the Mother-Daughter tea to be held this afternoon at the First Lutheran Church, Carson and Flower, are Mrs. John Schwartz and daughter, Liza, and Mrs. Donald Kinchloe and daughters, Susan and Rebecca. Proceeds will be used to educate a student in India.

Entre Nous

Members of the Entre Nous club journeyed to Whittier for their April meeting at the home of Jean Clark.

After the business meeting, which included plans for the forthcoming Mothers luncheon, a Dutch auction was held. This created much entertainment as well as contributing to the service fund.

Cookies were provided for the Harbor General hospital by Irene Little. Used clothing was also gathered for the patients at Harbor.

Door prize for the evening was won by Evelyn Schooley. Eva Marsh, a former member who moved away ten years ago, was welcomed back.

Others present were Wanda Martin, Eileen Miller, Betty Bruchie, Ruth Lutes, Evelyn Schooley, Dottie Nobbs, Esther Jense, Phyllis Fuhrer, Billie Cough, Irene Little and Ethel Wolford.

Church Benefit

Guild Enjoys Oriental Dinner at Boylan Home

In true oriental fashion, shoes were left in the foyer by guests as they arrived at the home of Mrs. Joseph Boylan, 2714 Grand Summit Rd, last Thursday evening for an oriental dinner. Mrs. Donald De Cuir was co-hostess for the event which was a benefit for the St. Gerard Guild of the St. Margaret Mary parish in Lomita.

Guests were seated on pillows around the table which was decorated with lemon leaves, flowers, tropical fruits and Chinese figurines in keeping with the theme. The hostesses served an oriental dinner from chafing dishes and the fortune cookies and tea made up the dessert.

Fortunes were read and a community sing was enjoyed after dinner. The door prize, linen, was won by Mrs. Donald Diroll. Attending the party were guild members Mmes. R. H. Clotworthy, W. R. Crump, Robert F. Dies, Donald Diroll, Raymond Gallegos, John McDonald, Mervin Mexico, Robert Miller, Leo Salisbury, Keith Secord, Fred Steinbroner, Donald Whitman, Peter S. Zamperini.

Guests were Mmes. Marvin C. Marker, Barton A. Tatum, and James D. Williamson.

Mrs. Boylan will serve as chairman of International Affairs next year for the Torrance Junior Woman's club.

Annual Day Camp Slated

Summer is almost here and for all Girl Scouts that means time for Day Camp.

Central Torrance Neighborhood will again hold its Day Camp at Torrance Park, June 22-26, with the traditional overnight slated for the last night.

Training for all adult personnel who will work at Day Camp will be held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., on May 4, 7, 14 and 21 from 9 a.m. until noon. Child care will be provided for a small fee.

Both the Day camp and the training sessions will be under the direction of Mrs. Sid Sullivan, director; Mrs. Isis Moyers, assistant director, Mrs. Marie Bowers, business manager, and Mrs. Rhoda Major, assistant director and equipment manager.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Robert Evans, 1212 Felbar Ave., entertained her bridge club last Tuesday afternoon. A dessert was served prior to the bridge games.

First prize was won by Mrs. Howard Walker, second by Mrs. Jack Brooks and traveling by Mrs. Douglas Baldwin.

Club members present were Mmes. Baldwin, Brooks, Jack Day, Earl Eckert, Warren Hamilton, William Starr, Robert Triplitt and Walker.

Mother and Daughter Tea Today at Lutheran Church

Month of May is the time for annual support of India Mission Work for the Women of the Church in American Lutheran circles.

This year, the May tea for mothers and daughters, will be held this afternoon at the First Lutheran Church. The tea will begin at 3 o'clock and the program will be at 4 p.m.

Featured speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Erling Wold of Immanuel Lutheran Church of North Hollywood. She is a graduate of Luther college, attended Lutheran Deaconess Hospital in Chicago, received her MA degree in Biblical Theology in Chicago and the Lutheran Seminary at St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Wold is a pastor's wife and is the mother of five children. She is responsible for many religious publications.

Sharon Madory, 10-year-old, will sing a solo "God of Mercy, God of Light". Proceeds from the tea will be used to educate a young male student in India.