Narbonne

"Toward Better Understanding of Our Foreign Relations" will be the goal of the panel of foreign and American students who will appear before members of the Narbonne PTA on Tuesday evening, May 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The seven American Field Service students have been speaking to student and parent audiences in the Harbor and South Bay areas during the past school year. The three who will return to their homelands after a summer tour of the U. S. are Heidi Heintel from Germany, Teruo Hirano from Japan and Piergiorgio Marabelli from Italy.

Also on the panel will be local students who lived with families in foreign lands last summer. They are Chris Orman, the moderator, who visited Turkey; Betty Vartanian, Spain; Kathy Reap, Germany; Tom Ruckey, Italy; and Nancy Gorham, who was a winter student in Swedish schools.

Mrs. George Weeks, past president of Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council, will install the new officers of the Narbonne PTA. Seventy-five members of the high school A Capella choir will sing under the direction of Miss Alice Sturdy.

Jefferson

Jefferson PTA's first annual Spring Bazaar will take place on the grounds of Jefferson School, Talisman and Carson, on Wednesday, May 20, starting at 4:30 and continuing until 9:30 p.m.

One of the unusual features of this event is the movie, planned on a continuous running schedule. Cakes, lemonade and hot dogs; white elephants and books; a make-up booth, where a willing mother will apply make up "like mommy's," and many game booths are planned.

There is still time to donate anything portable for the Bazaar, and books, white elephants, etc., will be picked up by the Mobile Unit. Call Mrs. Henry Goldsmith, Chairman of the Bazaar regarding donations.

Crenshaw

New officers were installed at the PTA meeting held May 13. They were Mrs. Lonnie Manswer, president; Mmes. Benjamin Hatfield and Mark Kline, vice presidents; Mrs. Edward Escovar, recording secretary; Mrs. G. E. Meseke, corresponding secretary; Don Robinson, treasurer; Mrs. R. O. Angcos, historian; Mrs. Don Robinson, parliamentarian; and Robert Cardwell, auditor. Eighth grade room mothers were hostesses.

Earl Eckert, principal, conducted a parent education class at the school on May 14.

Last Friday, a Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputy was at Crenshaw school licensing bicycles. Mrs. Alvin Zar, PTA juvenile protection chairman, arranged this event.
