Push-Back Look, Straw Spark Spring's Picture For Milady's New Hat

Pre-spring enchantment, as a robin on the wing, has invaded the hat making classes of the area. What her gay new spring bonnet will be is being studied by each local woman as ultimatums are released from Paris and New

In these classes, which meet every Tuesday afternoon at the civic auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Pamela Grubbs, local women are making their own elegant hats following the latest in fashion trends. From the blocking to the trim has proved a fascinating diversion for a large group during the past few months and as the classes resume after the holidays all thoughts turn to spring.

From the famous hat coutleres comes word that straw, real and synthetic, is the all important material for spring.

The straws this year feature variety, softness and new texvariety, softness and new textures. Patterns and weaves are intensely interesting suggesting rich or lacy textiles in novel finishes, either dull or lustrous and frequently combining both effects. The look of elegance is heightened by all manner of surface decorations and colors are more beautiful than in years. So it all adds up to augur for a season adds up to augur for a season of hats not only exceedingly flattering and wearable but sufficiently varied to appeal to all tastes
