 MRS. MICHAEL JAMES STANGE
 ... On Honeymoon

Stevens-Stange Vows Read at Old Mission

Picturesque Santa Barbara Mission was the scene on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 15, at 2, of the wedding of Miss Janice Gayle Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, 425 Via Pasqual, and Michael James Stange. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stange, 132 Palos Verdes Blvd.

The lovely bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace. The scoop neckline and sleeves were trimmed with white velvet. The fitted bodice was accented with the white velvet trim and the full skirt fell over satin. Her seed pearl pill box hat secured the fingertip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, white orchids and roses.

Miss Audrey Stevens was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Eileen Dowling served as bridesmaid.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Peter Stange to stand as best man and Ronald Wilment was the usher.

After the single ring ceremony, a reception was held at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Barbara, where the couple are spending their honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and El Camino Junior College.

Her husband was graduated from El Segundo High and Santa Monica City College.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Casey of Palos Verdes Estates, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Akers of Palos Verdes Estates, recently entertained at dinner at the Plush Horse restaurant for out-of-town guests.

The visitors were Robert O'Leary, Wayne Pistole, David Briar, L. Kaiser and Kenneth G. Pratt.

Valentine Benefit To Aid Crippled Children

Marineland Restaurant will be the setting of a benefit luncheon and fashion show to be given by Las Madrecitas, south bay and peninsula auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild, Orthopedic Hospital, Thursday, Feb. 13, at 12 noon.

"The Heart of Fashions" is the theme of the show, which will feature spring fashions and furs by Lilyan's of Hollywood Riviera.

Table decorations will follow the theme of the show with red velvet hearts edged in white tulle, surrounded with white stock and miniature red roses.

Those attending need not worry about their youngsters. The Town and Country Nursery School next to Marineland will watch the wee ones while their mothers attend the function.

General chairman of the Fashion Show will be Mrs. Charles McKenny. Other chairmen will be the Mmes. Garnet Cumming, bids; B. W. Kuhn, seating; John S. McKenna, coordinator; Harold D. Leslie Jr., decorations; and V. K. Anderson, hostesses.

The bids for "The Heart of Fashions" will have a personal touch. Members of the committee are busy making individual red heart shaped invitations, hand printed in white.

Wearing white organdy heart shaped aprons edged in red tulle hostesses will greet the guests.

One of the door prizes will be a gown from Lilyan's by a well known fashion designer.

Committee members for the decorations are the Mmes. Walter Hetz, Arnold W. Martin, Bruce Swauger, Richard Wilson, G. R. Reinhardt and Kenneth W. Betts.

Assisting with the table seating will be Mmes. Walter Hansen and Joseph Wall.

Helping with the coordinating will be Mrs. Lowell Klatzsch.

Hostessing will be Mmes. Glen Kleinhesselink, Ernest Dahlman, Robert Eckhouse, Richard Egan, George Savage and Joseph Rollinger.

Mrs. Garnet Cumming is accepting telephone reservations.

THE HEART OF FASHION . . . The Valentine, traditional symbol of love, will influence the Las Madrecitas fashion show and luncheon to be held at Marineland on Feb. 13. Proceeds from the event will go to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopedic Hospital. Shown making hundreds of hearts to decorate for the luncheon benefit are, from left, Mrs. Harold Lesley, Mrs. Bernard Newman and Mrs. Howard Langtap.

Gerald Revells Mark Silver Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Revell, who resided in Torrance until this past year when they moved into their beautiful new home at 16 Eastvale Rd., Rolling Hills, are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary.

On Saturday afternoon more than 150 friends will gather at an open house to congratulate the couple and to toast their future happiness. On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Revell will leave by plane for Mexico City to spend three weeks.

Wednesday of this week, the exact wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Revell repeated their marriage vows at a mass at the Holy Trinity Catholic Church with the Rev. George Gallagher as officiant. All of their four children were present, Marilyn, Joan, John and Barry. After the mass, the Revell family accompanied by Rev. Gallagher enjoyed a breakfast at the Hacienda Hotel. The eighth grade choir of Holy Trinity School sang at the nuptial mass.

The couple, who were both reared and educated in Los Angeles, were married in the chapel on the campus at the University of Minnesota, at Minneapolis, from which Mr. Revell was graduated. They lived in various parts of the country until seven years ago when they moved to Torrance where Mr. Revell is president of the Cal-Metal Co.

The family has been active in the Torrance community life. Marilyn, a Marymount graduate, is employed as a dental assistant, Joan is a Marymount student, and John and Barry attend the Holy Trinity School.

Mrs. Revell has been active in the local Court of Catholic Daughters.

Mr. Revell is a member of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, Knights of Columbus, heads the industry committee for the Little Company of Mary Hospital and has been active in the "Bonds for Israel" drive. He and Mrs. Revell spent several months in Europe in 1951 and visited Israel, the Holy Land and had an audience with the Pope in Rome. It was while in Tel-Aviv where his company was making an installation, that Mr. Revell became interested in the needs of the Israeli peoples.

The hours of Saturday's open house are from 2 until 4 p.m. A silver and white decor will be used in decorating. A silver and white wedding cake will center the table and white roses and other white blossoms will be used profusely.

When discussing her 25 years of a happy marriage, Mrs. Revell said, "A sense of humor is the most important factor in overriding all the ups and downs of married life."

All of these people are invited to attend and are urged to invite others.

Money raised from the event goes to the hospital which serves the community.

Delores Langerud Is Now Mrs. Roger Iles

To the first strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, Miss Delores Norma Langerud walked down the aisle of the First Lutheran Church last Saturday evening, Jan. 18, at 7:30 to exchange her wedding vows and rings with John Roger Iles. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Langerud, 25209

Eshelman, Lomita. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Roger Iles of Coolidge, Ariz.

Mr. Langerud walked to the altar with his daughter. Her bridal gown was of imported rose point lace and tulle. The bodice was styled with a scalloped scooped lace neckline and ornamented with sequins. The fitted bodice was attached to a bouffant skirt with a wide hipline panel of lace scalloped into a wide tier of bridal satin. Sequins also decorated the skirt. A tiara held the illusion veil and the bride carried white orchids.

Miss Mavis Langerud was the maid of honor. She wore a blue chiffon gown and a small
