Box of Human Asnes Turned Over to Police

What would you do if you found a box of human ashes in a house you had just pur-in a house you had just purchased?

Well, Lloyd Brady, 2051
W. 235th St., called on Torrance police, depositing the box with them. Police notified the former owner of the house, who stated the ashes were there when he bought the home. Furthermore, he didn't want them either.

Stone and Myers Mortuary finally got the package. Officials there announced the box contained the cremated body of an 8-month-old child who died in 1923.

There were no burial laws in 1923 concerning cremation.

There were no burial laws in 1923 concerning cremation.

Meanwhile, the mortuary is holding the ashes in case the owners want to claim them.

Three Adult Classes Set At PV School

The San Pedro Adult School opened thre branch blasses at the Malaga Cove School in Palos Verdes Estates starting this week, according to Glenn N. Gardiner, principal.

These courses are tuition free and are open to all adults regardless of previous educa-tion. Registration takes place in the classroom the night the class meets.

Interior decoration, Wednesdays, 7 to 9:30 p.m., Roberta S. Griffin, instructor. This course includes the study and selectionselection of color, design, textures, fabrics, floor and wall coverings, furnishings, antiques, and furniture re-fin-ishing. Instruction will feature lectures, demonstrations, guest speakers and field trips.

Speed reading, Tuesdays, 7 to 9:30 p.m., Harold Wennstrom, instructor. This class is designed to improve your reading speed many times and is recommended for those who have quantities of printed material they must comprehend. The instruction will include the latest audio-visual equip-

Physical education for women, Thursdays, 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. Dorothy Klausner, instructor. This is a physical fitness class with emphasis on body building, health habits, nutrition and posture improvement. Exercises will be done to music. Special home assignments to fit the individual's needs will

Sailor Hurt In Accident

A 32-year-old Navy man evidently fell asleep at the wheel and crashed his car into a utility pole Tuesday.

The accident occurred on

Pacific Coast Hwy., west of Vista del Parque. James Martin Porter, the driver, was taken to Harbor General Hospital and later taken to a Navy hospital. He is stationed aboard the USS Pine Island at Long Beach.

Three persons received minor injuries Sunday in a three-car collision near 174th St. and Hawthorne Ave.

Taken to Harbor with minor injuries were Virginia Yates, 22, and Tandra Ann Yates, two months, both of El Segundo.

Dan Selleck, 4, was treated at home for a nose bleed. Drivers were Dr Donald M. Lanham, 2912 Via La Silva; Barney Allison Selleck, 35, of 135 Calle de Andalucia: James Albert Yates, 22, of El Se-
