WHAT'S DOING
R. S. Pyle, your Telephone Manager in Torrance

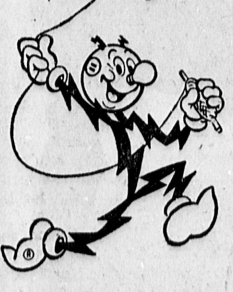

Care for a look at some unusual phones? Here are a couple of experimental types. You'll agree they're quite a change from the phones you use every day. So we've asked a number of people to try them out at home for a month. In the foreground is a new-style bedroom phone. The phone at left is even more unusual. The dial's built right into the handset. Naturally, it's too early to tell if either of these phones will ever go into regular service. But our aim is to find out what telephone users think of them. For what we learn from tests like this will help set the style of your future telephone.

California Conservation Week will be observed throughout the State from March 7 to 14. And this is a good time for all of us to take steps to preserve California's natural resources. Our conservation authorities point out that Californians all have a big stake in this, and there are many things we as individuals can do. We can support tree-planting programs that beautify cities and rural areas. We can conserve water at both ends of the pipe line. That means protecting water sources — and not wasting water. We can practice "Outdoor Good Manners" and prevent the littering up of cities, roads, camp grounds and countrysides. And we can all give our support to the conservation clubs that are working to safeguard our soil, minerals, forests, water and wildlife.

These days, lots of people enjoy regular telephone visits with folks out of town. It's fun to phone someone at a certain time each week, for instance. When you plan a phone visit this way, you know the person you call will be at home. You benefit from low Station-to-Station rates, too. And when you look over the rates listed in your phone book, you'll be surprised how far you can call for $1 or less. Pacific Telephone

Sure! But fly 'em safely!

Here's how—explains Reddy Kilowatt

2. Be sure string is perfectly dry.
3. Never use wire, tinsel or metallic string.
4. If the kite catches in a power line, let go immediately.
