For a Lenten Treat -- Serve Eggs, But Prepare Them the Proper Way

Eggs, that popular item on every American dinner table, takes on a more impor tant spot during the season of Lent. With this in mind, Mrs. Lyle O'Hora, 1615 Fern Ave., mother of four children, discusses the proper way to prepare eggs and their many uses for Herald readers.

Mrs. O'Hora, whose husband Lyle is an accountant, leads a Lyje is an accountant, leads a busy life but the proper prepa-ration of balanced diets is a main item with her. She packs four lunches all the school year through and during Lent the makes seven lunches. Of sourse in these lunches eggs are used, but for the breakfast unch there is always a ther-mos of hot soup or hot cocoa. IN ORGANIZATIONS

Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Hora re active in various organiza-tions, especially those that have to do with the happy welfare of their youngsters. They both belong to the Little League Parents' Group. Mr. O'Hora is an officer of the parent organization at Bishop Möntgomery High School, offi-rear of the Knights of Colum-bus, a member of the Disabled American Veterans, and the American Legion. Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Hora American Legion.

Mrs. O'Hora is a member and past regent of the local Caholic D aughters, works with the Nativity Mothers' Club and Bishop Montgomery High, is a member of the American Legion auxiliary and Nativity Altar Society. The local housewife has been ac-tive in Girl Scouting and serves in some capacity for the Community Chest each year, having won the "Oscar" a few years ago for leading the first section in Los Angeles area to "go over the top." 'go over the top.'

The O'Horas are the parents to Johnny, a freshman at Bishop Montgomery High School; Colleen, in the sixth grade at Nativity, and 10-year-oht twins, Jill and Judy, fifth praders at Nativity.

MANY EGG USES With such a busy schedule and healthy appetites to ap-pease Mrs. O'Hora uses many eggs. "Eggs are valuable as food because of their protein and mineral content. Although they are thought of as a breakthey are thought of as a break-fast dish, eggs can be used in a variety of ways for lunch, dinner, and in school lunches," the says. Mrs. O'Hora points out that eggs should be cooked at low heat, even to hard-boil eggs, to avoid becoming tough. The use of an iron skillet is recommended.

Tavorites at the O'Hora house are scrambled eggs, fried "over easy," poached in milk and served on toast; soft hard-boiled for school lunches. They are also good served with TESTING THE OMELET ... "Yes, I know, mother, that eggs have to be cooked slowly and over low heat," Colleen O'Hora tells her mother, Mrs. Lyle O'Hora, who checks the emelet she has just removed from the oven. Mrs. O'Hora is today's "guest cook" and she discusses the food value and the correct preparation of eggs and egg dishes for HERALD readers.
