New Manhattan Players Drama Features Rabbit

"Harvey," a three act comedy featuring an invisible rabbit in the title role, opened a four week-end run at the Camino Real Playhouse, 526 S. Irena, Redondo Beach, last Friday.

The show is directed by Warren Lavender of Torrance who has carried major roles in other Manhattan Players' productions including that of Captain Fishy in "Teahouse of the August Moon" and Doc in "Mr. Roberts."

Featured as Elwood P. Dowd, who is the only character in the play to whom Harvey, a six foot white rabbit, is visible is Dick O'Neil of Palos Verdes.

Additional comedy is provided by Ethel Dugan as Veta Louise Simmons, Dowd's sister, who finds Harvey and Elwood obstacles in the way of her social life and her matrimonial plans for her daughter, Myrtle Mae, played by Donna Fenton of Manhattan.

Other supporting roles are filled by Norm Fordyce as Dr. Chumley, psychiatrist, and owner of Chumley's Rest, a sanitarium to which Veta attempts to have Elwood and Harvey committed and Berne Fullmer as Judge Gaffney, family legal advisor.

Romantic interest for the show is provided by Jim Flynn as Dr. Sanderson, assistant to Dr. Chumley, and Marj Howard as Ruth Kelly, nurse.

Rosemary Altfeld plays Mrs. Chauvenet, friend of the family; Ron Wright, Wilson, the attendant at the rest home; Sue Stansbury, Mrs. Chumley, and Warren Lavender, the taxi driver.

Advance reservations for "Harvey," which is produced by Tomasine Healy, may be obtained by calling the playhouse.

Southwest Savings Plans Anniversary Month Party

April is Anniversary Month at Southwest Savings and Loan. This year the event is being celebrated in Southwest Savings Inglewood and Torrance offices by a festive birthday party lasting from April 1st through the 10th.

Fred E. Edwards, president, and John A. Tweedy, vice president and manager of the Torrance branch, have issued a cordial invitation to everyone to participate in the easy, prize-filled contest and to receive a free gift.

Displayed in each Southwest Savings lobby will be a huge glass jar crammed with pennies. Contest blanks will be handed to every adult visitor. After studying the jar to determine how many pennies it may contain, the contestant is to write his entry on the space provided and drop the stub in a hopper. Winners will be notified by mail after April 10th as soon as judging is completed.

Prizes Listed

Prizes, including two 21-inch Hotpoint TV consoles, six RCA Transistor radios and 1200 valuable food pacs, will be evenly divided between the two Southwest Savings offices so that separate sets of winners will be announced from Inglewood and Torrance. Residents of all communities served by the association are urged to enter the contest and try their luck.

In addition to the contest, Southwest's free gift to each visitor will be a five-package assortment of patented Kolo-coat garden seeds selected especially for the anniversary celebration by Norvell Gillespie, famed Southland garden authority.

Another Milestone

One year ago, Southwest Savings marked another great milestone in its growth when its Inglewood and Torrance offices moved from their original locations into modern, new buildings. Civic leaders unanimously hailed the openings as a "source of pride to the community."

Today, with expanded facilities and greater financial strength, Southwest Savings continues to grow with a Southland it has helped to develop into one of the most progressive sections of the nation.
