Toastmasters Install Officers

More than 30 Torrance Toastmasters and their wives attended the Torrance Toastmaster 695 club induction meeting of new officers at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty on Tuesday night.

Installed as new president was Robert B. Whites; educational vice president, Howard Hinkle; administrative vice president, Hanley Rogers; secretary, Edwin Wheelers; treasurer, Oliver Hamilton; sergeant at arms, Bill McEwen; and publicity director, Lee R. Dawson.

Lewis C. Turner, past president of Toastmaster International, was installing officer.

Robert B. White, new president took the gavel from Virgil Steele outgoing president, and presented him with his past president's pin, and complimented him for his outstanding job as president.

The club is designed to aid its members in public speaking. To teach them to appear effectively before any audience, to train them for leadership, and for chairmanship in meetings of all kinds.

Thief Takes Rings

Anna D. Smith, 2708 W. 166th St., reported a burglary at her residence Monday.

Taken, according to the police department, were a wedding ring and an engagement ring valued at $835.

Brick Firm Hit

A brick firm, 17799 S. Western Ave., reported the theft of $150 worth of tools this week taken from a tool storage shed. Malicious mischief damage amounted to about $25, police said.

McCune, Heiman Seek Top Office Of Moose Lodge

James McCune and Stanley Heiman have been nominated as candidates for election to the office of governor of the Torrance Moose lodge and the annual election of officers will be held on Monday, April 7, James A. Evans, lodge secretary, announced this week.

The names of Harlan Briesse and Garvis Coffey were submitted as candidates for the office of junior governor, while William Olson and Harvey B. Casson will compete for the prelate's chair.

Joe Morley is unopposed for the treasurer's job but four candidates have been nominated to fill the one vacancy on the board of trustees. Mike Cicero, Jud Morris, Joseph DePetris and Joseph Platt will appear on the ballot as trustee candidates.

'Realtor Week' Proclaimed by Gov. Knight responsibility. Every time a movement is initiated to establish a new community of homes, they have been foremost in seeing to it that men, women, and children are properly housed and that the attendant commercial enterprises are provided.

"Realtors, always conscious that widespread home ownership brings to this nation a stability and strength that no other people enjoy, have been successful in efforts to place property ownership within the reach of more families. In this, they are pledged to abide by a strict code of ethics. Also, by positive action, manifest most effectively through their "Build America Better Program," Realtors continue their drive in all cities to eliminate slums and blighted areas.

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight has proclaimed April 13-19 as "Realtor Week," according to information received by Bob L. Haggard, president of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors, from Clive Graham, California Real Estate Assn. president.

The Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors will join hundreds of similar boards across the country during the same period in presenting to the public the high aims and obligations of Realtors, President Haggard announced. Special events will be held by the real estate board during the week, it was reported.

In the proclamation designating "Realtor Week" Governor Knight said, "California's population increases by more than 40,000 persons each month, this figure representing new births and an unprecedented migration. This calls for a constant increase in housing, highway, school, and transportation facilities. People need and demand homes, churches, hospitals, recreational centers, and related services and facilities to make California the finest state in the nation,

JACK E. WHITE

"ELECT A MAYOR YOU CAN TALK TO"

(Political Advertisement)

JACK E. WHITE, active pioneer civic leader, endorses Nick Drale for re-election as Mayor with this statement, "I have watched Torrance grow from a Town of 16,000 to a City of nearly 100,000 during my residence here. Nick Drale has devotedly played a major part in bringing this about, both as Councilman and as Mayor. I sincerely recommend election of a man who faces all problems with honest sincerity."
