English Play Scheduled by Beach Group

Opening June 19 at the Hermosa Playhouse is British playwright Christopher Fry's comedy of fifteenth century England's manners and morals, "The Lady's Not For Burning." Directed by Charles Grey, who also plays a leading role, the play is scheduled for a two-week engagement.

Two members of the cast are countrymen of the playwright, Dennis Keen, appearing for the first time on the West Coast, has extensive repertory experience in London and New York. Sallie Conrad, who has acted with silent screen stars Lillian Gish, Richard Dix, and Mary Pickford, was born and received her early acting experience in England.

Others in the cast are Margaret Middleton, Aaron Highland, Betty Willingham, Ron Wright, Barney Friedman, and Jim Dougherty.

Gets Master's Degree
Donald Roy Tompkins of Torrance was scheduled to receive his master's degree Friday from the University of Colorado.

More than 1650 seniors and graduates were awarded degrees at the Boulder, Colo. university.
