Grand Officer Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McElroy Visits Local Unit Tonight

Honored Lady Olga Kelly, Assistant Grand Lecturer to Lomita Court 81, Order of Amaranth, will visit the local court, in official capacity, Thursday evening, June 26, the visitation to be held in Torrance Masonic Temple.

Ritualistic ceremonies, including initiation of candidates, will be exemplified, for the approval of the Grand Officer, with the Royal Matron, Honored Lady Dorothy Davis and Royal Patron, Sir Knight A. D. Davis, presiding.

Honored Lady Gladys Mothersell PRM and Honored Lady Mattie Mewer PSM, co-chairman for the affair and their committee are preparing for capacity attendance. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the Order to be present.

At Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Carson, 21326 S. Normandie, Torrance, recently traveled to Glen by the Hot Springs where they are enjoying their vacation.

MRS. JAMES MCELROY ... Wives Navy Man

In the presence of 50 close friends and relatives at the Wayfarers Chapel on June 12 at 6 o'clock in the evening Miss Gwendolyn DuVal Hull, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William F. Hull, 24726 Winlock Dr., became the bride of James Dean McElroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McElroy of Blaine, Wash.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina gown of white lace over taffeta. Her illusion veil was edged in lace and her bouquet was of white feathered carnations centered by a white orchid.

She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Mary Miles served as the honor attendant. She wore a powder-blue lace over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white carnations and blue delphinium.

Earl Harter stood as best man, and ushers were Richard Hull and Tommy Thompson.

The Rev. Kenneth Kook officiated at the marriage. A reception was held at the Penquin room at Marieland. Miss Barbara Ryan was in charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School this month. Her husband was graduated from Blaine High School and is now serving with the United States Navy.

On July 20 the young couple will go to Hawaii to live where Mr. McElroy is stationed.

Mrs. R. Maben Addresses Garden Club

"Make use of your garden flowers in arrangements that please you and they will complement your home" was the advice given the members of the Greenthumbers Garden Club and their guests at Thursday evening's meeting.

Mrs. Richard Maben, guest speaker, made many floral arrangements using flowers from their own gardens.

The containers consisted of natural wood, baskets and an old fern lantern finished in a dull black, low dishes, and a table arrangement using the metal part of a shovel. Many of the arrangements were taken home by the members.

The demonstrations were given following a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Elden Sellmeyer.

Guests attending were Misses, B. Pauling, S. Rued, E. McCracken, F. G. Leger and K. Klenzworth.

Girls Program At Y Offered

Girls of the area, 12 years and up, will have the opportunity to enjoy "camp away from camp" by joining the Torrance Branch YWCA summer program which runs from July 14 through July 25. Crafts, sports, music, dancing and swimming are included in the program.

The hours will be from 1 to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, and for the convenience of working families, the girls may remain at the YWCA under supervision until 5:30 p.m. Registrations are now being accepted at the YWCA, 2320 Carson St.

edged in pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids and magnolias. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Lorena Farnie was the maid of honor. She wore pink chiffon taffeta. Her bridesmaids wore blue taffeta and a crown of hair maid interwoven with pearls holding a circular veil of English Empire illusion.

Bridesmaids were Misses Pat Greer, Myra Fiamengo, Gayle Soucher. Their gowns were fashioned as that worn by the maid of honor but were in the blue chiffon taffeta. Each carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Miss Catherine Derouin was the junior bridesmaid. She wore pale blue taffeta under lace.

Dun Derouin stood as best man and ushers were Marcel Derouin, Lou Verrochia and Ted Krawczyk.

The Rev. John Hegarty, pastor, officiated at the nuptial mass and vow exchange.

Mrs. Mary Butterfield at the organ played the wedding marches and accompanied Connie Smith who sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day."

The 350 wedding guests were entertained at a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Mrs. Hazel Ward cut the wedding cake and Joan Kuntz registered the guests.

The newlyweds left for a tour of the east which will include Niagara Falls, New York City, and Washington, D.C. They will visit relatives in Minnesota, Pennsylvania and Ohio.
