

Craft Center Now Offers Full Schedule

In full swing at its new location, the Torrance recreation department's new craft center is now offering several new classes open to all ages. The craft center program will supplement the crafts offered at the school playgrounds and at the parks, with special kinds of crafts, such as mosaics, copper enameling, board craft, and puppetry.

Classes in children's art are taught by Mrs. Gillett, who has instructed classes for the recreation department for the past two years.

Three series of lessons will be offered to the children. Each class meets twice a week on Tuesday and Thursday. The three series are: June 24-July 10, July 15-July 31, and Aug. 5-Aug. 21.

Kiwanis Club Charity Fund To Benefit From Ball Game

The Kiwanis Crippled Children's Foundation will take over the Los Angeles Coliseum Friday, July 11, for the baseball game between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Milwaukee Braves. This includes all seats with the exception of the season tickets.

Grandview Palos Verdes Volume On Increase

Sales of more than 100 homes in the new unit of Grandview Palos Verdes, were reported yesterday by William C. Kulow, sales director of the prestige home development. He noted that sales have averaged more than one a day in the current unit for the past month.

The homes are priced from $23,900 to $30,100, and require a $500 minimum VA down payment after costs and interest.

Offering a choice between 2 bedrooms and den and 3 or 4 bedrooms and family room, 2 bath floor plans, eight model homes—six of them furnished—typify the gracious interiors and 41 varied designs of the community.

Model homes and sales office at 27200 Silver Spur Rd. are open from 10 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. daily and Sunday. To reach the development, the motorist should drive south on Hawthorne or Crenshaw Blvds. or Western Ave. After crossing Pacific Coast Hwy., turn left from Crenshaw or Western—right from Hawthorne—to Silver Spur Rd., then south to the model homes.

New Theater Opens Today

"The Male Animal" will open the Hampton Players new little theater, 100 Wall St., Redondo Beach, tonight and tomorrow when an invitational premiere will be staged.

The Broadway comedy will be open to the public Saturday night, according to George Hocutt, director.

ELEVATION RANGE
California's topography ranges from that of Death Valley, 276 feet below sea level, to the towering heights of Mount Whitney, which rise to an altitude of 14,495 feet!

Walter O'Malley, owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers has stated that all the proceeds from this game will go for the Youth Activities of Kiwanis Clubs of So. Calif., one half going to local Kiwanis Clubs for their youth activities and one half going to the Kiwanis Crippled Children's Foundation. This is a regular scheduled game played in the afternoon on the Dodgers schedule.

The Kiwanis Club of Torrance will participate and will have tickets available for those persons wishing to attend. This will be the only source of tickets for the game on this date and the supply is limited and will be sold on a first come first served basis.

Ken Anderson, Kiwanis Club president, stated that all general admission tickets sold are not taken will be given to the local Little Leagues and Boy Scouts. If you desire to attend this game or wish to assist this cause by making a free ticket available to a Little Leaguer or Boy Scout, tickets may be obtained at Parrish Stationers, 1423 Marcellina Ave., or from any Kiwanian.
