Speakers Bring New Approach For Services

Two special services are planned for Sunday at the Torrance Four-square Church, on the southeast corner of Arlington Ave. and Sepulveda Blvd.

Rev. Ruth English, missionary from Puntarenas, Costa Rica, will speak at the morning worship service at 10:45 a.m. Miss English attended a language school in Costa Rica, and upon completion of the course in Spanish went to Costa Rica to do missionary work.

In the evening service at 7:45 p.m., Rev. Bob Williams, choral artist, will present the Gospel message illustrated with chalk drawings. He is engaged by the National School Assembly during the school year to present his artistry in high school assemblies. His wife, a musician, presents musical background with organ and singing during the service.

Rev. Williams will present one of his pictures as a gift to the persons bringing the most visitors to the service.

Four Choirs Combined

Four choirs will be combined under the direction of Elmer Winter to present a concert of sacred music Sunday afternoon at 4 as a welcome to Pastor William Roeder at the First Lutheran Church of Torrance, Carson St. and Flower.

varied selections, among them well-known spirituals, choral arrangements, vocal ensembles, and vocal and instrumental soloists.

Following the concert, a buffet supper will be served by the WOTC.

Dr. Penner To Lecture

Dr. Walter L. Penner, regional director of the southwest area of the National Assn. of Evangelicals, will be speaking at the Sunday Morning Worship service on June 23 at the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, 3343 W. 174th St.

Dr. Penner's message will include a report of the far-reaching activities of evangelicals on international, national and local levels.

Sermon Topic Announced

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all the Christian Science churches will be on the subject "Christian Science."

The Golden Text opens the Lesson with Isaiah's words, "The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it" (40:5).

A Bible text, chosen from Psalms, says later in the Sermon, "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven . . . Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (119:89,105).

WITNESSES' MEET SET

Circuit Supervisor William A. Thomas is serving this week with the Torrance congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. It was announced by Gerald Dunham, presiding minister.

Mr. Thomas, serving here under the appointment of the Watchtower Bible Society, will meet with the congregation at the new Kingdom Hall, 2303 Arlington Ave. Movies of the building's construction and a talk by Thomas will highlight Saturday night's meeting beginning at 7:30.
