Ann Landers

by several weeks, but this is not a single pregnancy. So, it's like I said, Ladies—most pregnancies are nine months. It just SEEMS longer.

Dear Ann: I'm a widow in my late 40's. Both my children are grown and on their own. I have an excellent position as a personnel director and I enjoy my work. But I miss male companionship—on a steady basis.

Frankly, the problem is this: I've gone out with many gentlemen. But after two dates they go crazy over my beautiful apartment and tell me what a terrific cook I am. Then they settle down in my easy chair and that's the end of the courtship. This has happened to me so many times I'm sick of it.

One man even had the nerve to ask if he could rent the second bedroom in my apartment. Am I doing something wrong? If so—what? Please advise me—Dinah.

How do these men get into your "beautiful apartment" and find out what a terrific cook you are—after two dates? Apparently you invite them. Of course you're doing something wrong. You're trying to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds.

If you've got marriage on your mind, Dinah, keep the relationship at the courtship level and maintain the distance that lends enchantment.

Don't make with the roast beef and biscuits until there's some solid interest on the gentleman's part. A woman who uses the domestic pitch too soon destroys the incentive and winds up with nothing but a very large grocery bill.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the HERALD and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.)
