

Ronald Snow and Bride to Make Future Home in Pico

Ronald Irwin Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snow 1605 Sartori Ave. claimed as his bride, Miss Helen Frances Croley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Croley, 22037 Marjorie Ave. in an evening ceremony July 1 at the North Redondo Methodist Church. The Rev. Harold E. Carson, pastor, officiated at the marriage in the presence of 100 friends and relatives.

Mrs. Rilla Carlson, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Grable Duvall, who sang, "I Love You Truly," "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Croley walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a waist length lace sheath with a chiffon overskirt. Her halo headpiece held a shoulder length veil and she carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Sally Croley served as her sister's honor attendant. She wore a pink nylon dress with a matching heart shaped picture hat.

Bob Clark was best man and seating the guests were Dick Croley and Dan Callahan.

A reception followed at the church and another at the home of the bride's parents. The couple spent a honeymoon in Wrightwood, Calif. Their new address is 3835 Underwood Ave., Pico, Calif.

The bride was graduated from Leusinger High School in 1957 and her husband was graduated from Torrance High.

New Leaders Installed by Dandeliers

Dandelier Dance Club installed its new officers at a dance at the Nichols Recreation room recently.

The evening's affair was under the direction of Messrs. and Misses, Robert Armstrong, Al Adler, Don Wolverton, and Jerry Walk.

Taking over the direction of the club's social season for the coming year were Messrs. Al Adler, president; Walter Bruhn, vice president; Donald Wolverton, secretary; Roger Jones, treasurer; and Jerry Walk, publicity.

Those who have served as Dandelier officers for the past year are Messrs. and Misses, Robert Kendrick, president; Robert Belk, vice presidents; Robert Armstrong, secretaries; Robert Trimble, treasurers; and Walter Templin, publicity.

'Guildsmen' To Perform

Premier performance of the Guildsmen in their production of J. B. Priestley's "An Inspector Calls" will be presented at the Plush Horse restaurant Friday and Saturday July 18-19. Curtain is at 8:30 p.m.

Arthur T. Williams, director of the current production, reports that The Guildsmen are attempting an experiment unique in the history of local theatrical efforts.

While pledged to bring the finest in world drama to the expanding cultural efforts of the South Bay, The Guildsmen state that their major concern will be to function as a true resident repertory company with a versatile production library geared to the interest level of the local audiences.

Among those to appear in the coming production are Marcia Feldman, Patricia Finnegan, Mary Zollinger, Denis Vandal, James T. Barnes, Arthur T. Williams and Joseph Astin.

WSCS Staff Entertained
