Local Teenagers Depart on 3100-Mile Caravan Journey

Teenagers from the Torrance YMCA left this week end for a trip through eight states and will take tours of Salt Lake City, Idaho Falls, Yellowstone and Grand Tetons National Parks.

Hiking, fishing, water sports will be the order of the days along the 3100-mile caravan.

The theme of the trip is "Seeing the Power of God" and along with meals cooked over the open fire, sleeping under the stars, and lively campfire programs each evening, the boys will hold nondenominational Chapel services each day to live up to their theme.

The trip is under the direction of Doug Cannon, Joe Wilson, Pop Stewart, Jim Smith and John Tower. However, the boys have a strong voice in the decisions of the trip. They all shared in planning the menu, destination, and route of the trip. President Hugh Tower will take daily votes on matters of importance.

Other Torrance YMCA camps to be held following this trip include Round Meadow from Aug. 2 to 9 for boys 9 to 12; Mohamme from Aug. 9 to 16 for girls 9 to 12; John Muir Trail Park, Trip from Aug. 18 to 25 for boys 14 and older; Dad and Son Camp Sept. 6 and 7 for boys 8 and older; Family Camp at Big Flax Sept. 20 and 21, open to any family; and Wampanoag Camp Aug. 26 to Sept. 6 for boys and girls 7 through 14 years of age.

Cannon pointed out that nearly 1,000 local youth will participate in Torrance YMCA Camps before the summer has concluded.

Ramo-Woolridge Co. Send Their Regrets

Regrets, with no explanation of their change in plans, are contained in a letter from the Ramo-Woolridge Co. who had sought a zoning change to locate a new research plant in the city, as expressed in a letter received by Mayor Albert Isen.

The letter, signed by M. C. Blanch, assistant for planning for the company, praises the cooperation accorded him by city officials saying "all those concerned have been impressed and most cooperative."

Girl Scout Troop 1277

Senior Girl Scout Troop 1277 recently returned from a week's camping trip in Sequoia. The girls hiked, did their own cooking and maintenance, and attended the ranger programs in the evening. The troop planned the trip and financed it by means of a bake sale and support from the sorority which sponsors them.

Members of the troop are: Leora Kochler, Suzie Bluechel, Sandy Ernst, Sandy Stotts, Judy Arzonian, Jean Wagner, Sally Robinson, Donna Rappaport, Karen Kennedy, Janice Hoffman, Charlene Garrison. Chaperones were leaders Mrs. Allen Beresford and La Verne Koehler. Miss Barbara Cagle was first-aid attendant of the group.

FLAX USE

Flax fibre is made into linen, but flax is grown for either fibre or seed, and is known commercially as linseed, or flaxseed, according to how it is prepared and marketed.
