Summer Stock Productions Cast at El Camino College

Following a week of auditions, El Camino's four summer stock productions have been cast. Burnett Ferguson, co-organizing producer-director, announced today.

Casting of these plays was a generally difficult task, Ferguson stated. Most of them have large casts and overlapping rehearsal schedules, so we had to be careful to avoid conflicts.

The summer stock season will begin July 18 and 19 with twin productions of "The Brick and the Rose" and "Used Car For Sale," two original works by Lewis Carroll former Warrior and a Phi Beta Kappa from University of Southern California. "Brick and the Rose" will be directed by "Used Car For Sale."

On July 25 and 26, the Campus Theater will see Robert Chaplin's seven-act production of "Hamlet" by William Shakespeare. Chaplin, who has gained recognition for his solo shows of the Bard's works, will direct as well as play the title role.

Third production in the series will play Aug. 1 and 2. It is Jean Anouilh's adaptation of the Sophocles tragedy, "Antigone." Jacqueline Oliver will play the title role with Michael Binnette, Karen Bahr, and Linda Webber.

All productions will be held in the Campus Theater with the curtain rising at 8:30. Summer theater program will be a large-scale production of "The Skin" beginning Aug. 11.
