

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"This is a MAN?" To Each His Own

Dear Ann: Here's a letter that will sound so much like a soap opera your readers will think you made it up. I would not believe it either, but it happens to be my problem and I swear every word is true.

I married a life-guard because he had a build like a Greek God. He's brainless, lazy, but magnificent to look at. It never occurred to me we'd have to live out of the water.

I am a successful business woman and own a lovely home. My husband has had 17 different jobs since I married him four years ago. He hasn't worked in five months. I give him cigarette and lunch money. He charges gas and rides around in my car all day.

It got back to me that he's been seen with other women. When I asked him he didn't deny it. He claims he gets lonely during the day when I'm at work.

What shall I do about the big lug? Don't tell me to throw him out. It's so nice to have a man around the house.

GILDA

This is a MAN? Well to each his own, and I'm glad he's yours. As time marches on you'll realize you made a bum bargain—but this is YOUR business, and your headache.

This parasite whom you laughingly call a husband knows you're willing to put up with his shenanigans rather than lead a aimless existence. He's hep to your weakness and intends to play it to the hilt. Gigolos never go to work so long as there are women like you around. When you finally realize that self-respect is nicer to have than a man around the house you'll throw this brute back in the tank.

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from the mother who was disgusted with "sloppy, irresponsible sitters" tried me to a crisp. She signed her letter "Had It." Well, I'm a sitter who was "Had It" from those cheap, miserable women who call themselves "Mothers."

Did you know there are women who meet the sitters on

Miss Torrance of 1958 Weds

Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Lovelady are enroute to New York on their honeymoon. They were married last Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Kingdom Hall. Mrs. Lovelady is the former Miss Sharon Starns, Miss Torrance of 1958-59. Mr. Raymond Thomas conducted the marriage in the presence of 200 friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Starns, 216 Via Los Altos, are parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lovelady, 1670 Gramercy, are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride chose a gown of Italian lace over satin for her wedding. It had a Sabrina neckline and long lace sleeves. The floor length wedding gown was designed on Colonial lines. Her wedding veil fell from a tiara and she carried white orchids, lilies of the valley and phalaenopsis. Mr. Starns gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Dalia Bennett was the honor attendant. She wore a princess gown of pink nylon taffeta and carried pink roses encircled by pink carnations.

Miss Nancy Ewing and Miss Gail Muolo were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were also of the pink nylon taffeta and they carried pink bouquets.

Mr. Ed Palmer stood as best man and Ron Lovelady was the usher. J. Nichols played the wedding marches and accompanied Sandra Gish, soloist. A reception was held at the YWCA where Judy Lovelady registered the guests.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Torrance High School and attended El Camino College. Mr. Lovelady is in business with his brothers here.

Julia Rhone Now Mrs. R. H. Ehr Gott

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was the setting last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the beautiful wedding of Miss Julia Ann Rhone and Richard Howard Ehr Gott. The bride, a second generation Californian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Rhone, 1019 Beech Ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arne H. Ehr Gott of Visalia and the late Mr. Ehr Gott, who was a prominent business man in Visalia for many years.

Mr. Rhone walked to the altar with his daughter and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was of Chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted lace bodice was detailed with an off-shoulder neckline and brief sleeves. The long torso bodice ended in lace points over a billowy skirt of silk tulle. The illusion veil was held by a crown of tiny pearl encrusted Chantilly lace cap and the bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Betsy Shaw McPhee served as the matron of honor. She wore an aqua lace sheath dress with a chignon cummerbund and back drape. She carried a cascade of white carnations and yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jeanette Harris Rogers, Mrs. Sharon Felker Hayden, Mrs. Phyllis Rhone Jones and Miss Vicki Pierre.

They also wore the aqua lace sheath gowns with chignon trim and carried cascades of white carnations and yellow roses.

Bruce McClelland stood as best man and ushers were David Rhone, Richard Maruell, Warren Newman and Vic Pontrelli.

Stevens-Muensterman Vows Recited at St. Lawrence's

At an 11 o'clock nuptial mass last Saturday morning, July 19, at St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church, Miss Audrey Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, 425 Via Pasqual recited wedding vows with James Muensterman, son of Mrs. Helen Muensterman, 22937 Arlington.

The Rev. Charles Ara stood before the flower-banked altar to officiate at the marriage and the nuptial mass.

The bride, who came to the altar on the arm of her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white shadow Chantilly lace fashioned with a Sabrina neckline. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. The bride's fingertip veil was secured by a seed pearl cap crown. Her bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Janice Stange was the matron of honor. She wore pink organza and carried pink roses.

Mrs. Helen Hammack was the bridesmaid. Her gown was also of pink silk organza and her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Raymond Cobb stood as best man and Thomas Cassidy was an usher.

A reception followed in the church hall and Miss Eileen Dowling registered the guests. The couple are now at home in Westchester.

Mr. Muensterman was graduated from Torrance High school in 1958. She was a song queen, Tortar lady queen and homecoming princess. She attended El Camino College and for two years was a song queen.

Mr. Muensterman was graduated from Serra High in 1953. He was captain of the basketball team for two years, placed on the "All-Tournament" team in 1952, and was chosen the "Outstanding Basketball player of the year 1952 at Serra."

Tri-Delts Stage Summer Party

Mid-summer days, when the social world relaxes, was the time when the South Bay Alumnae of Delta Delta Delta decided to stage a social rally for their main philanthropy, the Harbor General Hospital. Bids went out for a bridge-luncheon at the Palms Verdes Country Club.

Over 200 Tri-Delts and their friends, wearing summer's latest fashions, filled the club to capacity.

Suspended at the entrance-way was a large sparkling sea-life mobile introducing the decorating theme, which led to glistening, colorful branches of driftwood adorned with paper fish.

Dominating the card room was a seashore mural made of real starfish, sea fans and shells of all kinds. Under the fascinating scene were the many lovely prizes which as announced by Mrs. Donald Kane, president, were distributed by the eight young junior hostesses dressed in full skirted panel frocks.

At each individual card table, pearls, sequins, tiny pink, blue and white shells glistering on sparkling memo clipboards were awarded the "big" star.

Mrs. Carl Stoffers, general chairman of the outstanding social benefit, expressed her thanks to those helping Delta Delta with its hospital project.

WELCOMING THE GUESTS... When the Tri-Delta Alumnae of the South Bay entertained at a mid-summer bridge luncheon to aid their Harbor General hospital philanthropy, the guests were greeted by, from left, Mrs. Helen Ferris and Miss Billy Jo Reading of Torrance.

Mrs. Ed Wilder, Rollings Hill; Mrs. Carl Stoffers, Palms Verdes; Mrs. Charles Reading and Mrs. James Stone of Torrance; The Palms Verdes Country Club, decorated with a fascinating sea theme was filled to capacity for this outstanding social event.

Huskisson-Ballinger Rite Read at Wayfarers Chapel

Picturesque Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend was the setting for the 9 o'clock wedding on the evening of July 11, when Miss Gloria June Huskisson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Huskisson, 16716 Faldia Ave. made her wedding promises to Melvin (Tim) Ballinger, Jr. Partners of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ballinger, 17234 Ardath Ave.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She was lovely in her wedding gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. The lace bodice had a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt fell over white satin. A scalloped pearl tiara held the illusion veil and the bouquet was of white orchids encircled by white carnations, and tied with white satin streamers encrusted with stephanotis.

Miss Anita McIntyre of Hill, also of the pink and white daisies. Walter Bier performed the duties of best man and ushers were George Larisack and Robert Demonek.

The Rev. Andre Disconoff officiated at the marriage. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Jay Jensen of Torrance and Mrs. Roy McIntyre of Inglewood. Mrs. Dan Ballinger was registered the guests.

The bride was graduated from Gardens High in June 1953. Her husband attended Torrance schools and served two years with the United States Army. A honeymoon was spent in California. The bride's gown was the L. J. Ballinger design and her bouquet was made of garden.
