City Softball Play

Frank Olson held the Longren Aces to three hits and two runs at Torrance Park last Monday night. Jim Jackson scored three of the four runs earned by the winning Lovelady Hardware team.

Torrance Sand and Gravel won by a forfeit from the Sabres Monday at Torrance Park.

Dan Espinoza poled out a home run in the third inning for General Telephone at Torrance Park Tuesday night in a lopsided game that saw the Phonemen swamp the VFW nine, 14 to 1. Pitcher Ralph Espinoza allowed 12 hits and six walks while Ralph Todd held the losers to no hits. SERVICE (SLO-PITCH)

The Torrance Optimist Club took 16 runs and 20 hits from John Tweedy, Torrance Rotary Club pitcher Tuesday at Waleria Park. Kip Randall, Optimist hurler, pitched a no-hit game as the losers scored their lone run on a pass.

The Waleria Kiwanis Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce game, to have played Tuesday at Waleria, was called on forfeit.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE
Union Carbide beat Inglewood Farms, 8 to 7, Wednesday at McMaster Park. Jim Gray held the heavy bat for the winners circling the bases in the second inning and going for three in the fourth.

Rome Cable Company scored seven runs on five hits while Al Nelson allowed the visiting Glide Easy team two runs on one hit. Herb Berg, Stan Woods and Cliff Bray each scored twice for the winners in the game played Wednesday at McMaster Park.

Coleman Engineers and Union Carbide lead the Industrial League with nine won and three lost.

Besides a home run by Randall in the third, the highlight of the evening was when Sid Gans was caught off base in the fourth inning and tagged out by Clem Bolles, Rotary first sacker.

Good field play on the part of Pitcher J. A. Barrington Torrance Kiwanis team mates held the winning Torrance Lions Club team to 8 runs out of 15 hits in a game played Tuesday at Torrance Park.

Jim Krueger scored four runs for the Kiwanis team while Ken Miller brought in two of the loser's seven rallies.
