Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Strunk, 17823 Elymwood, are announcing the engagement and wedding plans of their daughter, Joe Ann, and Roy Alfred Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baker, of South Pasadena.

The wedding will be solemnized Aug. 10 at the Four-square Gospel Church in Gardena.

The bride-elect attended North Torrance High school and her fiance was graduated from Jordan High school in Los Angeles. He is now employed by an Orange County firm.

Shower for Bride-elect

Yellow and white were the colors used in decorating by Miss Sheila English at her Doris Way home last Friday evening when she entertained honoring Miss Phyllis Nicholas, bride-elect of Maurice Wood.

Games were played and the honoree opened her gifts. The hostess then served refreshments carrying out her party colors.

Bringing gifts for the future bride were her school friends, Ora Denny, Kay Wolliver, Sue Wood, Doris Myers, Nancy Woul, Beverly Woul, Linda Parich, Judy Carnahan, Millie England, Barbara Tedrik and Bonnie Temner.

Benefit Theatre Party Aug. 7

TOURIST FLOW

About five million persons visited California during 1957.

Leeds' Home Setting for Gala Benefit

"Nite Under the Stars" will be enjoyed by members and guests of the Anna Grace Heart and Cancer chapter of Mount Sinai Hospital on the beautifully landscaped grounds of the Leo Leeds home at 1216 Granvia-Alhambra in Palos Verdes Aug. 3. Hostess, Mrs. Leeds is a past president of the chapter and currently its counselor.

Fabulous plans have been completed for one of the Southland's outstanding parties, says Mrs. Charles Davis, president.

In true California style, dining at poolside with dancing, swimming and all sorts of social games is the intriguing program for the sake of charity, she adds.

Dinner will be served from 6 p.m.

The chapter represents the non-profit, non-sectarian hospital in the South Bay area and, as the name indicates, carries on its fund-raising activities for benefit of needy heart and cancer patients.

Proceeds of the dinner-dance will go to the same cause, says Mrs. Davis, who is taking reservations.

Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Storinsky of Torrance recently dined at the Plush Horse restaurant to celebrate the completion of their new home in Rolling Hills.

Ann Landers

...consider a dry party dull can go to a saloon and get plastered.

Dear Ann: Please settle an argument between the wife and me. She's one of those women who loves to read medical books and then imagines she has all the sicknesses she reads about. She completed a chapter on polio the other night, and developed a kink in her neck. She was sure she was getting polio and I had to phone our family doctor at midnight and ask him to talk her out of it.

I'm telling you all this so you will know what kind of a person she is. Well, she was the happiest woman in town last week—she had an impacted wisdom tooth. Now she monopolizes every conversation with a full report of the extraction and as you can well imagine, some of the details are sickening.

I've told her this is in poor taste, but she insists people find such things fascinating. She claims I am supercritical and just want what Dr. D. D. Dandruff's Note.

People who insist on baring others with details of their aches, pains, operations and dental history are just as tedious. Also, it's an admission that they are in a state of mental bankruptcy. My condolences—to her friends.

Are you tempted to make a new year's resolution to read for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "Tossing Smoking" containing 11 year-long 40 ways in cuts and a large self-addressed stamped envelope. ANN LANDERS will be glad to help you with your problems. Send this to her in care of this newspaper and include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS
MEATS: Still very little change in the general meat prices. There has been a "softening" in beef prices, with fore-quarter cuts wearing the lowest price tags. CHICKENS and TURKEYS are outstandingly good values. LAMB has changed little, but large supplies from the Mountain states are expected in about two weeks. This may cause a trend to lower prices. The PORK market is "glow" in summer months, and is more likely to react to increased demand in the fall. Some "specials" are expected in HAMS and BACONS, but fresh pork prices are steady. MUTTON: Large and medium sizes are still one of our best buys—price-wise and protein-wise. DAIRY PRODUCTS: Balance the budget with cheese. It is a concentrated package of food value. Five ounces of Cheddar cheese provides nearly half the amount of protein needed each day by the average person. It is also rich in calcium and phosphorus—and contains the milk vitamins as well. Adults like cheese because it combines the food values of milk with the appeal of distinctive flavor and color. ON THE PRODUCE STAND: APPLES: California's own Gravenstein. Nothing better for pies and sauce—and for eating out of hand if you like a crisp, tart apple. AVOCADOS

DIFFERENT POTATO SALAD
 Perk up summer menus. To hot, subed potatoes add minced green onion, sliced radishes and hard-cooked egg slices. Blend equal portions of mayonnaise and sour cream, season to taste with salt and caraway seeds. Mix the dressing gently into the hot potatoes. Cover and chill for about an hour—or longer—before serving. Delicious with fried chicken.
