Connie Mack In Playoffs

Lomita-Harbor City Connie Mack baseball team, slated to play in Little League competition in San Bernardino Saturday and Sunday, won this honor in their first year of organization.

During the past season the South Bay League champions lost one game by forfeit and a 4-to-6 tussle to the Corvets. They were followed by the Celts, Corvets, T-Birds and Taco Nine.

City Softball

BLUE (SLO-PITCH)
Carl Glotta, Elks Club pitcher, gave up six runs on 12 hits to the winning Torrance American Legion team last week. The losers brought in four runs on 10 hits.

The National Blues forfeited to the Torrance Civitan Club.

Stan Sellers led the Fire Dept. "A" nine with two three-baggers that earned two of their five runs. The Firemen held the losing Local 1135 to 3 runs on eight hits.

BLACK (SLO-PITCH)
The Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen scored out the Columbia ERA nine, 7 to 6, after a second inning rally that brought in four runs out of five hits.

Holding the Torrance Teachers to a no run game, after Fitcher Bob Moffett allowed four hits, the Fire Dept. "B" team ran up 16 tallies. H. Whitacre and Ed Graboski both slammed out home runs in the second inning for the winners.

League Teams Practice for All-Star Football Classic

Bay League and Pioneer League senior football players from last season have settled down to two weeks of practice for the 3rd Optimist All-Star Prep football game set for Friday, August 15, at El Camino College Stadium.

A pair of coaches, known to be employed to tutor the future college gridder in the all-star classic.

Hawthorne High's Hal Chauncey put his Pioneer charges through their first two-hour drill Thursday morning at which time Mike Gillespie went into high gear throwing passes.

By mid-week Chauncey should be ready to name two strong ball clubs for the Optimist tilt.

OVER AT LEUZINGER, home of the Bay Leaguers for the next two weeks, former L. A. Rams Center Leon McLaughlin of Santa Monica had 22 players for the first night outing.

Missing from first-day practice were QB Larry Courney and Back Bobby Locks of Inglewood, a pair of boys McLaughlin had been counting upon for first offensive duty.

Filling at the quarterback post was Bobby Carison of Redondo, a left-handed passer. After one look McLaughlin commented, "Bobby has a pretty good idea what to do with the football back there."

THE BAY LEAGUE coaches plan to throw the ball as much, if not more, than the Pioneer League, they promise.

Passing the ball will mix well with the rushing speed of A. J. Britley, Samohi, Gene Williams, Mira Costa; Tony Palante, Leuzinger; Butch White, Torrance; and speedy receiver Eired Olsen, Inglewood.

The Bay Leaguers had a first day injury when Tackle Steve Foster's troublesome knee was bumped.

Double-Header Set at Stadium

Gardena Stadium has programmed a big double-header of racing this weekend, the jalopies cavorting in a 100-lap Championship Saturday night and the NASCAR convertibles and motorcycles stunt show on Sunday afternoon.

It will be the longest outing of the year for the jalops and their most important event of the campaign to date. The race is expected to bring out a field of more than 33.

As an added highlight of the program there will be a "Destruction Derby." Right cars will vie in this auto wrecker's delight in the car wrecker's field of the stadium.

The Elks Lodge of Huntington Park is sponsoring the Saturday convertible and motorcycle stunt show for their charities.

Carol Rose, Lynn Wolfe, Pat Woodworth and Julian Hoff. Boys were Dickie Amargy, Harvey Cole, Allen Poed, Gaylord Imura, Frank Munoz and Lester Sogun.

Season's Battle Will Feature Cycle Races
