

G. P. Pollock, Bible student and lecturer, will speak at the Civic Auditorium, 1349 El Prado, Torrance, at 3 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 10.

Pollock is familiar to many listeners as moderator for the "Frank & Ernest" radio program heard locally each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. over station KTLA.

Pollock says that, contrary to the saying, "tomorrow never comes," the "tomorrow" foretold in the Bible will come, and even now is not far away.

And it will be a glorious tomorrow! Paradoxical though it may seem, the chaotic state of the world today, with its threats of nuclear and space warfare, is one of the outstanding evidences that God's word of tomorrow is now, he reports.

During his world travels and research in Bible history, Mr. Pollock has found people everywhere vitally interested in what tomorrow promises, especially in view of today's turbulence.
