Boy Scout Troop 997

Boy Scout Troop 997 of Hollywood Riviera, recently returned from a one-week camping trip to Sequoia National Park Headquarters for the stay was Camp Wolverton, where the boys and their leaders were awarded a Good Camping Award by the Crescent Bay Area Council.

A number of the boys worked on requirements toward Second Class awards, while Randy Steiner, Larry Reed, Craig Muhonen, and Roger DiJulio also were becoming qualified for the Woodcraft merit badge.

A high light of the week was an 18-mile pack trip to Twin Lakes, going up to an elevation of 10,500 feet. A burro was used to pack in food and cooking utensils, but the remainder of the gear was packed on the strong backs of the scouts. Sliding in the snow, along with swimming in the cool water was an added activity. Fresh fish, caught by the many expert fishermen of the troop, provided a welcome change from the usual menu of dehydrated foods.

While there was abundant even to the extent that deer and bear caused some trouble getting into food and candy containers.

Under the leadership of Scoutmaster Don Emerson and his assistants Bill Steiner and Ed Farr, the following scouts enjoyed the trip: Jeff Burden, Jim Burden, Randy Short, John Vaughan, Ronny Bielefeldt, Buddy O'Jibway, Randy Steiner, David Palmer, Robert Palmer, Rich Sylvester, Larry Reed, Ronald Traub, Gregg Emberson, Craig Muhonen, Gary Greer, Ed Farr, David Gleisman, James Fife, Tommy Adkins, John Hughes, and Roger DiJulio.

Scoutmaster Emerson announced that four new boys are now included on the roster: Rich Sylvester as Senior Patrol Leader, David Gleisman, James Fife, and Jim Sheehan. Tommy Adkins has been named Assistant Senior
