BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

FRUITS
APPLES. Sebastopol Gravenstein.

CANTALOUPS have never been better.

GRAPES. Some of your favorite varieties are abundant: Red Malaga, Ribier and Thompson Seedless.

PEACHES. Good news from Antelope Valley! Peaches and pears may be purchased from roadside stands now. Plentiful!

PEARS. Bartlett's starting from Lake County.

VEGETABLES
BEANS. Green, snap beans.

BELL PEPPERS. Crisp sticks are delicious on relish plate; unsurpassed filled with your favorite stuffing and baked.

CELERY, CORN, CUCUMBERS, LETTUCE, plentiful. Wonderful quality.

TOMATOES. Simple, colorful salad: sliced tomatoes on crisp, tender lettuce. Serve with salt, pepper and a dash of lemon juice—if you are watching your calories.

PROTEIN FOODS
EGGS. Some markets and chains are featuring eggs. Watch for some real "specials"—less than 50¢ a dozen for large double A grade.

Cattle are wonderful cutters. Without them the dinner menu soon would become tiresome and a valuable source of body-building materials would be lost. We are happy to note that we can welcome back the more deluxe steaks and roasts as well as the less expensive forequarter cuts of beef to the dinner table this week. Remember, a steer is not all steak. So, avail yourself of other "specials" this week—roasts and delicious tasty ground beef. Brisketed SHIS-KEBABS delight the family. Use chuck, neck or round; Cut in 1 inch cubes. If the meat is not tender, let stand overnight in a marinade of 1/4 cup vinegar and 1/4 cup salad oil seasoned with garlic and herbs such as, marjoram and thyme. Alternate cubes with tomatoes and whole mushrooms on skewers and broil. If desired, dip each kebab in a barbecue sauce.

BACON, good quality, and fully cooked HAMS will be "specialized" this week in many markets.

CHICKENS and TURKEYS will still be budget-buys.

LAMB and PORK remain about the same in price.

DAIRY PRODUCTS. Milk and cheese are "old reliables." Good for us.
