

Child Care Center Called 'A Home Away From Home'

To establish a "home away from home" for the children of working mothers.

California State operated unit here to care for the children of working mothers.

The center, at 2021 Marina St., starts receiving the 45 children now attending at 8:30 a.m. It operates until 6 p.m.

"The enrollment is down a little," a center spokesman said. "It has been up to 85 and 88."

MOTHERS PAY for their children's day-time care on the basis of their salary, the number of hours the children stay at the center, and the number in the family.

The children certainly are a well-adjusted group. Center employees said of the 45, ages two to six.

Golden State Thrift Opens New Service

Golden State Thrift Co. in Redondo Beach has made a new service available to South Bay residents. It was reported by Sheron J. Garner, president.

Golden State Thrift was established under new ownership and in completely remodeled quarters in May, 1953 and since has set new records in both thrift and loan services in this area. Total interest paid to investors for the period ending June 30, 1953 at the rate of 5 per cent per annum increased 12 per cent over the June, 1952 interest payment. Total loans have increased over 30 per cent.

These funds are accepted in the form of a Passbook Account, resembling savings accounts at banks and savings and loan associations, but provide a 5 per cent return with interest paid four times a year.

IN ADDITION TO the seven teachers headed by Vera Stowell, who has been with the program since it was founded in the Park more than 15 years ago, are two housekeepers and a cook.

Some of the mothers whose children stay at the center during the day work in aircraft, others in smaller industries, and stores. During school, some of the teachers leave their children at the center for daytime care.

"Many South Bay residents are becoming cognizant of the higher earnings available on their invested funds at Golden State Thrift and the many convenient features we offer," answered Garner when queried on this increased business activity.

WE SPECIALIZE in small personal loans, the financing of small business purchases, such as laundromats and radio repair shops, and financing of mortgages, with a low rate. This gives us great mobility of our funds and this provides a high return on invested funds from the general public," Garner continued.

Golden State Thrift is located at 405 North Pacific Coast Hwy. in Redondo Beach. The 80-foot frontage building with over 200 square feet of floor space provides ample facilities for investor services and loan negotiations. Post office box 405, Redondo Beach, Calif. is also available.
