1200 Expected At Brown Fete

An anticipated crowd of 1200 persons representing Torrance and Southwest County cities will honor Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, California's attorney-general and candidate for governor, at a reception and Hawaiian luau at the Polysean here Saturday, Aug. 30.

Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance will be general chairman of the event. He has been joined by other area mayors and civic leaders in the event.

SEVERAL ON the welcoming committee with Isen will be Mayor LeRoy Center of Redondo and Mayor Edward Edwards of Hermosa Beach.

Torrance councilmen Robert Jahn, J. A. Beasley, and Victor Benstead also have been invited to serve on the welcoming committee along with councilmen and civic leaders from the area.

BROWN AND the Southland residents attending the reception will be treated to an authentic Hawaiian luau complete with food prepared in the manner of the South Sea islands, Isen said. Tahitian entertainers are scheduled for the affair and two orchestras will provide music for dance during the luau.

Attendance at the reception and luau is by reservation only, but tickets are being made available to the general public, Isen said.

Central Church To Be Host to Superintendent

Dr. O. E. Schaffer, district superintendent of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, will speak at the 11 a.m. services Sunday.

Dr. Schaffer will attend the pot luck dinner and business session in the guild hall following the service. He will explain the "Opportunities Unlimited" program of the California Conference at that time.

Herman Miller Plymouth Tops Regional Sales

Herman Miller Plymouth Co., of 1809 Canillo Ave., beat nearly 50 Southern California and Arizona auto dealerships to place first in July sales among exclusive Plymouth dealers. It was disclosed this week.

A telegram from Jack B. Sparks, Plymouth regional manager, to Fred Miller, vice president and general manager of the Miller company, read:

"Congratulations on the fine Plymouth sales job turned in by your organization for the month of July. Your performance has placed you in the number one sales position for July among Los Angeles region Plymouth exclusive dealers."

Sales Manager Jim Panos credited newspaper advertising and a vigorous sales force with the success of the business. Orvil De Yoe is sales supervisor.

Miller described the organization as a "family business." Herman Miller, Fred's father, is president. Mike Miller and two uncles, Bernard and Martin Beckman, operate the used car department at 3311 Canillo Ave.

The company also is exclu-
