Foursquare to Dedicate Church Sanctuary Sunday

Dedication services for the new sanctuary of the Torrance Foursquare church will be held at 10:45 a.m. Sunday and again at 7:15 p.m. it was announced here yesterday by Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor.

Special guests, including Mayor Albert Isen, will bring greetings to the congregation during the morning service. Richard Fitzgerald, manager of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, will represent that group at the dedication, Rev. Lowen said.

Dr. Earl W. Dorrance, supervisor of the Southern California district, will bring the dedicatory message with the theme, "Dedication to Worship" and will offer the prayer of dedication.

SPECIAL MUSICAL numbers will be presented by the choir and soloist Carol Hoffman.

At the evening service, Dr. N. M. VanCleave, supervisor of the Southwest District, will preach on the theme, "Dedication to Evangelism."

REV. AND MRS. Lowen accepted the pastorate at Torrance five years ago, and through their leadership the site for the new church at Avilington and Sepulveda was acquired, and a parsonage, a two-auditorium education

Guild Hears Accounts of Field Work

The Wesleyan Service Guild, Auxiliary of the Women's Society of Christian Service held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening at the First Methodist Church.

Following the devotions, Miss Mary Lou Hutchinson showed slides and gave an account of her work at Bethelton Center in Spartanburg, S. C.

Anyone who is a college graduate and interested in this type of missionary service is eligible for such work. Her narration was interesting and inspirational, a real challenge to young people who are qualified for missionary service in the home field, church officials agreed.

building, and the present church sanctuary erected. Rev. Lowen did much of the building as well as carrying on the church's business administration.

The buildings constructed to date are debt free, Rev. Lowen reports. He credits the success of the church to the friends of the church plus a strict program of fund conservation for the debt free edifices.

J. Gene Walker At Conference Of Church Youth

Completing a week-long session at the National Conference of Methodist Youth in Greenfield, Ind., this week is J. Gene Walker, who is one of the three representatives of Southern California Methodist youth at the meeting.

Walker, the son of Battalion Chief and Mrs. E. K. Walker of 2232 W. 231st St., has been active many years in the affairs of the First Methodist Church of Torrance. He is past president of the local Methodist Youth Fellowship, Wesley Fellowship and Youth Division council.

He is currently serving as secretary of the Wesley Fellowship Conference council of Southern California.

Walker attended the national meeting in 1955 when it was held in Harvard, N.C. Attending with Walker from Southern California are Betty Venegas of Pasadena and Donald Inlay of Palo Alto.

New England Minister to Speak Sunday

A New England minister will point out the contrasts between Unitarianism in his area and that in the Far West in an address at Sunday services of the Pacific Unitarian Church.

The speaker will be the Rev. Hugh Warren Weston, recently appointed minister of the Unitarian church of Marblehead, Mass., after previous service with churches in Natick and Saugus, Mass.

Rev. Weston is a native of the Midwest. He was an honor graduate of Lake Forest College and the Meadville Theological School of the University of Chicago. Before entering the ministry, he studied on a fellowship at the University of Buenos Aires in Argentina.

Church services are held at 11 a.m. at 1610 Acacia Ave.

FIRE SAFETY TALK
Inspector Gerard of the Los Angeles County Fire Department was the featured speaker at the Harbor City Lemita Lions Club Monday evening. Gerard showed a film on fire prevention along with his talk.
