THOMAS C. DACRE

Funeral services for Thomas C. Dacre, 73, of 624 Cota Ave., were held at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Tuesday morning with Rev. Hugh Percy conducting Episcopal rites. Mr. Dacre died Saturday.

A native of England, Mr. Dacre had lived in Torrance for about two years, coming here from Washington.

He was a member of the Torrance Amaranth, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, White Center Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of Seattle, and the Sunlight Chapter of the O.E.S. of Seattle.

Before ill health forced his retirement, Mr. Dacre served as sexton of St. Andrew's church here.

He is survived by his wife, Ann, of 624 Cota; two daughters, Lily Osborne of Seattle and Mary Hurley of Santa Barbara; and one brother, Robert, of England.

Four grandchildren also survive him.

Final services are being conducted this week in West Seattle where Mr. Dacre's remains were sent.

Stone and Myers Mortuary made local arrangements.

WILLIAM T. MARTIN

Funeral services for William Thomas Martin, 68, will be held in the Stone & Myers Chapel Friday at 2 p.m. with private cremation following.

Mr. Martin, who died Aug. 19, was born in Ohio and lived in the area since 1923. He was the former owner of Bill Martin's restaurant on Redondo Beach Blvd.

OPERA CONTINUED . . . Three more performances of "The Meddler" featuring Nadine Nickel in the title role and Rick Winter as "Toby," will be repeated tonight, tomorrow, and Saturday night at the Chapel Theater. The play was produced experimentally, but has drawn so well it was decided to extend its run.

Ex-Newman In College Post

Tom Burdick, 35, has been appointed co-ordinator of public relations at Long Beach State College, effective immediately. Dr. P. Victor Petersen announced today.

Burdick succeeds Dr. Robert W. Smith, who returns to teaching in the department of speech and drama. Smith will continue to supervise official publications of the college.

Burdick served as administrative assistant in charge of publicity and journalism instructor at Orange Coast college last year.

Burdick has a 10-year newspaper background in Pasadena, Alhambra, and Long Beach.

He was a sports writer for a Long Beach newspaper for eight years before entering the educational field as a journalism teacher at Ranch Alamitos high school, Garden Grove, in 1956.

He earned his B. A. and M. A. degrees at Long Beach State and is currently working on his doctorate in education at UCLA.

14 Area Cities to Join in Brown Fete

An audience of more than a thousand residents and civic officials of 14 Torrance area communities will be on hand Saturday evening for a testimonial luncheon for Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, California's attorney general, at the Polynesian in Walthers.

Torrance's Mayor Albert Isen, general chairman of the event, reports that a reception for Attorney General and Mrs. Brown will be held beginning at 6 p.m. and will be followed at 7 by a Hawaiian "pig ceremony."

A CHARMING native hostess will present a triple carnation lei to Brown and a Mauna Loa orchid lei to Mrs. Brown when the guests of honor arrive.

Joining in the welcoming ceremonies with Mayor Isen will be Mayors Adams Bolton of Gardena, LeRoy Center of Redondo, and Edward Edwards of Hermosa Beach.

Two orchestras and an army of Tahitian performers will provide entertainment for the luncheon show following dinner.

APPOINTMENT of John Barton of Walthers to direct the feasting arrangements, was announced this week by Isen. Bert Lynn and John Mulvihill are representing Torrance on the reservations subcommittee.

Twenty-five reporters, writers, and editors will represent the newspapers of the greater Los Angeles area at the event, according to Joseph Platt, who is handling public relations for the event.

Named as hostesses for the reception and Hawaiian luau were Mrs. Sal Perez, Mrs. Jack Parker, Mrs. Gus Anastasio, Rene Dean, Patricia Newkirk, Grace Thomasson, and Gloria Duckor.

Boy Scouts Treated to Unexpected Trout Fry

Boy Scouts attending camp in the Crystal Lake area of the San Gabriel Mountains were treated to an unexpected trout fry last week.

When a clogged air-supply line on a Department of Fish and Game tank truck clogged, the planting crew turned its misfortune into a trout dinner for the Boy Scout camp. The balance of 2,750 trout were stocked in the East and West Forks of the San Gabriel River and in Crystal Lake.

Bernard's Shoe Opens Contest

A Buster Brown coloring contest free to children between the ages of 4 and 14 is currently underway at Bernard's Shoes, 1315 Sartori Ave. It was announced yesterday by Bernard Lee, owner-manager of the store.

Children are being asked to come by the store and pick up a free coloring booklet.

Contestants will color the two inside pages and return to the store to be entered in the contest.

Local entrants will have a chance at winning a new Schwinn bike, roller skates, or both.

"It's lots of fun, and costs you nothing," Lee said. "Come in now. Don't delay."

MARINES REUNION

Washington has been selected as the site of the fifth annual convention of the Third Marine Division Association—veterans of the Bougainville, Guam, and Iwo Jima World War II campaigns—to be held at the Mayflower Hotel, July 17, 18 and 19 next year.
