Markham-Allin Vows Exchanged

Community Presbyterian Church in Long Beach was the setting last Saturday evening at 7 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Dorothy Joan Markham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Veazie Markham, 2331 1/2 Hawthorne Blvd., and Gerald Marshall Allin, of Chicago, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil T. Allin of Oakland, Ill.

As the 200 wedding guests assembled, Mrs. Paul New... organ music. She also accompanied Miss Sharon Elitz who sang "Sheep May Safely Graze" and "Oh, Love Divine."

Mrs. Robert Nikkel of Oakland served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of aqua crystallette and carried a basket of pale pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Beth Young of Burlington, Vt. Yale classmate of the bride, and Miss Michio Yanagi. Their gowns were of pink chiffon over taffeta. They also carried baskets of deep pink carnations.

Little Misses Vicky Lynn and Nan Jean Markham, who arrived recently from Africa, were the flower girls. They wore white nylon frocks with pink sashes and carried baskets of pink carnations.

Joe Peters of San Francisco was best man and ushers were Robin Markham, Robert Nikkel, Rev. Tom Hernandez and Chris Ratz.

The Rev. Cecil Allin, father of the bridegroom, officiated at the marriage. A reception was held at the children. Mrs. Dean Shepard of Torrance was in charge of the guest book. The newlyweds left for a few days in the San Bernardino mountains before going on to Chicago.

The new Mrs. Allin was graduated from Redondo high school, received her BA degree at Whittier college and in June received her masters in nursing from Yale university.

Her husband was graduated from the Hamilton, Illinois, high school, received a BA degree from Monmouth college and has a Bachelor of Divinity degree from the McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago.

Here from the east for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Newton Daddos of Illinois and Mrs. Eve Markham of Pennsylvania.

Cancioneros Will Begin New Season

Los Cancioneros, well-known amateur mixed chorus of the South Bay area, will resume rehearsals on Tuesday, Sept. 9 at El Retiro Park.

Mrs. Thomas H. Mabin, who is returning this year as director, is particularly interested in adding new male voices to the group. Rehearsals will be held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Sept. 9 and 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Beckman, 820 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera, 1:30-10 p.m.

There are limited openings in the women's sections, based on balance with the men's sections. Call Mrs. T. H. Mabin, or Mrs. Robert E. Padelford for information regarding interviews.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"Put Your Nose Back in Joint"

Dear Ann Landers: Our beautiful and brilliant daughter, 23, is thinking seriously of throwing her life away on a very average fellow. It's breaking my heart.

We have nothing against the boy but he's not in our daughter's class. She's had all the advantages of fine upbringing and he has had none. At present he does accounting in a small office and is attending law school at night. He has no personality, and rarely says two words to us. I doubt that he owns a suit of clothes.

The thing that worries me most is that his parents are separated and his dad drifts around the country, showing up only when he needs something. I keep reminding my daughter of the old saying "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree" but it hasn't helped her to see the light. Maybe a word from you will open her eyes.—DISAPPOINTED MOTHER

Put your nose back in joint, Mother. To borrow an old phrase from Aimee and Andy, "Many an offspring springs higher than the offspring it sprang off of."

If the boy is working during the day and going to law school at night he's got good stuff. This is more important than whether or not he owns a suit of clothes. He should be congratulated for rising above his environment and you should be proud that your daughter has the maturity to select such a boy.

To Yosemite

Mr. and Mrs. Arland Palmer and son, Jim, 1751, Andrew left Friday for a two weeks vacation at Yosemite.
