SELECTING THE RIGHT STYLES . . . Florence Blake, who is supervising the modeling for the style show Sunday afternoon at the Civic Auditorium discussed the right fashion for Marjorie Thompson, center, with her assistant Mrs. Barbara Push. The show will be held at 3 p.m. open to the public. Fashions are being furnished by Barbara Sue Fashions of the Carson Plaza.

IT'S NEW . . . This three piece outfit tops the fashions for this locale. Worn by Miss Judy Maus, 1028 Loma Dr., the creation consists of a matching striped shirt, jumper, and slacks.

THE POPULAR SHEATH . . . Marjorie Thompson, 1445 Carson, models this chic black wool dress. It's only accessory is a red rose. With the chemise and sack dress 'passé, the new sheath tops the fall fashion list this year.

Martha Jean Bender Weds Dr. E. Clark

Miss Martha Jean Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bender, 917 Beech Ave., became the bride of Dr. Elbert Clark IV in a beautiful ceremony last Thursday evening, Aug. 29, at the First Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Clark III of Laguna Beach are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Richard Brundin, at the organ, played a medley of nuptial music as the 50 close friends and relatives assembled for the wedding.

Mr. Bender escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a formal wedding gown designed with a lace bodice and a Queen Anne collar and long sleeves. The full skirt of panels of lace and satin fell into a train. The fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a pearl tiara. The bride's bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. James Mathias served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a gown of yellow taffeta and net and carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Sam Brainard performed the duties of best man.

The Rev. Don Shelby officiated at the marriage. He also sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Brundin.

A reception was held in the Friendship room at the church with Mrs. M. M. Schwab, Mrs. Clifford Olson and Mrs. John McMullin serving as hostesses.

The couple left for a honeymoon with destination unannounced. They will establish a home in southern California.

The new Mrs. Clark was graduated from Torrance High school. She then received her BS degree from UC at Berkeley. She received her RN in nursing and for the past two years has been working at the California hospital.

Her husband recently received his degree in Dental Surgery at UC in San Francisco.

New Members Entertained

Prospective new members of the Torrance Junior Women's Club were entertained at a dessert last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Russell Clawson.

Mrs. J. K. Louvier, president, was a special guest. The aims of the club were discussed and plans for the future were presented.

Guests were Meses. Maurice A. Hatten, R. W. Johnston, L. R. Hanson, Gerson Jacobson, Robert Evans, Robert C. Barik and Carl E. Mapes.

At Crestline

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schost, Mary, Kathy and Bob, 1407 Crenshaw Blvd., have returned from a week's vacation at Crestline. While at the resort they had as their guests, Mrs. Laura Felker and Andrea Hay.

They also visited Georgia's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stewart, Mr. Stewart is stationed there with the U. S. Navy.

Katila-Paesel Vows Recited in Hospital

Down the corridor of the Gardena hospital last Saturday afternoon at 2:30 walked a beautiful bride in her wedding gown and veil and carrying her bridal bouquet accompanied by her maid of honor. The bride is Sandra Katila. The bridegroom, Carl Paesel, Jr., who underwent an emergency appendectomy at 3 a.m., Saturday morning.

Attending the bride was Miss Mary Lee Chudy in a soft pastel sheath with yellow overskirt. She carried yellow carnations.

The best man David L. Lebkuecher was there to administer the smelling salts and to dress the bridegroom.

The minister Rev. Richard Dawson arrived with the parents of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Katila of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Paesel of Los Angeles.

The marriage vows were exchanged and the bridegroom was returned to bed. His bride, her honor attendant and parents left for the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Andrews, 28612 Westvale Rd., Rolling Hills. Mrs. Edward Stickle registered the guests.

The wedding was scheduled for 4 p.m. at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes. The church was decorated, the caterers were engaged, the bride's parents had flown down from Seattle. Fate intervened and the bridegroom was hospitalized.

The wedding guests, arriving at the church, were directed to the reception.

Upon the bridegroom's release from the hospital and his recuperation, the newlyweds will spend a honeymoon in Acapulco, Mexico.

Until then they will be at home at 509 Ave. G, Apt. F, Redondo Beach.

The bride has been attending UC at Santa Barbara and plans to complete her college education locally.

Mr. Paesel has a BS degree in Industrial Management from Georgia Tech.

To New York

Mrs. Carmela Maiola, 2179 Sepulveda left by plane Tuesday, Sept. 2, for New York, to spend a month visiting her son, Dominik Maiola, and family.

Kathleen Fagan Becomes Bride of James Peacock

At an 11 o'clock nuptial mass at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church on Saturday, Aug. 23, Miss Kathleen Anne Fagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fagan, 3448 Newton St., became the bride of James Lin Peacock, of Downey, son of Mrs. Mary Peacock of Hawthorne.

Miss Nadine Fagan served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a deep pink satin gown with a balloon skirt. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

Bridesmaids were Misses Marion Oscheck, Delores Hainley and Gauene Van Sickle.

Their gowns were pale pink satin and had the balloon skirts. Each carried a shower bouquet of pale pink roses.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She was lovely in her wedding gown of lace and taffeta. The dress was fashioned with a fitted lace bodice and a bouffant taffeta skirt which fell into a chapel train. A modified bustle gave a back interest. A crown of teardrop pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white roses.

William B. Fagan, Jr. stood as best man and ushers were Joseph Peddock of Hawthorne and Timothy Nihill of Elmhurst, L. I., New York.

The Rev. Charles Ara officiated at the marriage and mass.

The bridal party was entertained at a luncheon at the Jumpin' Jack restaurant and the wedding guests were greeted at a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple left for a honeymoon in northern California before establishing a home in Downey.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from St. Anthony's in Long Beach and both are attending El Camino College.

Among the 150 wedding guests were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Nihill and son, Timothy of New York.

Walteria Business Women Club will feature an exhibit at the Recreation Hall showing the results of youth activities sponsored by the Business Men and Women in this area. This will include a detailed exhibit of the activities of all local Boy Scout troops, assembled by Mrs. Dor Mathews. The exhibit of the local Girl Scout troops will be displayed by Mrs. Robert Wegener. The organizer of the local Camp Fire Girls exhibit will be Mrs. Lucene Brinkley. This entire exhibit should prove to be very instructive and help to enlighten the neighborhood as to the nature of activities carried on by these local organizations.

The Business Women's Club will also participate in the Roundup Days parade and an entry will be prepared by Mrs. W. T. Lahr, Joe Simon and Marge Motor.
