

Davenport-Lein Nuptials Solemnized in Chapel Rite

Miss Elys Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davenport, 16949 S. Western Ave., walked down the aisle at Wayfarers Chapel at 9 o'clock on the evening of Aug. 15 to plight her marriage vows with Harry Lein, of Inglewood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lein of Fargo, N.D.

MRS. HARRY LEIN

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a traditional wedding gown of white slipper satin. It was designed with an off-shoulder neckline and long sleeves. The long flowing skirt fell into a chapel train. A tiara held the fingertip illusion bridal veil and white carnations and red roses formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Arlene Klen was the maid of honor. She wore a coral brocaded taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of carnations and pink roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Leigh Lein of Fargo, N.D., and Mrs. Roland Davenport. Their gowns were of mint green brocaded taffeta and each carried a bouquet of peppermint carnations and yellow roses.

Robert Lein performed the duties of best man and ushers were John Monreal and Rollie Davenport.

The Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the marriage. A poolside reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where Miss Lenie Gedsell registered the guests.

The couple then left for a honeymoon which is a trip to Fargo to visit the bridegroom's parents. Upon their return they will be at home at 11316 Redfern Ave.

The bride was graduated from North Torrance high school in June 1958.

Her husband received his education in North Dakota and is now employed by Air Research.

Red Nichols Signed for Marineland

Red Nichols, whose contribution to American jazz is almost without parallel, and his "Five Pennies" have been signed by George M. Foster, entertainment director and owner of the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes, to appear for a limited engagement in the dining establishment's "Porpoise Room."

The famous jazz-band leader of the 1920's, whose life story will be filmed next month at Paramount, opens at Marineland Restaurant on Tuesday, Sept. 9, following the current engagement of Comedian Arthur Walsh.

Nichols, hailed as "the man who plays the horn of plenty," many times has made musical history. The greatest names in the music world were once instrumentalists with Nichols, whose golden records have made more than a million phonograph records of "Ida, Sweet as Apple Cider."

The trumpeter will be depicted on the screen by Danny Kaye, who will star in the film biography that will be titled after his Dixieland jazz group, "The Five Pennies."

New Baby Is Welcomed by Many Friends

Robert James Langford is the new member of the Vernon Langford family at 22428 Marjorie Ave. Besides their newly adopted son, the Langfords have another son, Roger, nine years old. Mr. Langford is a fireman with the Torrance Fire Department.

Recently, Mrs. Langford and Robert James were honored at a shower given by Mrs. Robert Moffitt and Mrs. Ted Drake at the Drake home, 5016 Meccafee Rd.

Decorations for the party were in blue. Appropriate games were played and the hostess served refreshments. A decorated bassinet filled with gifts for the new baby was presented to Mrs. Langford.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Misses Ed Poulson, Don Loy, John Millard, Keith Maxwell, John Ferraiolo, Jean Anderson, Milton Langum, Arne Moe, Harry Peterson and Elaine Howard.

Another special gift came from Capt. Robert Moffitt of the Fire Dept., for whom the baby was named.
