Four Torrance Men to Fly to Morocco Today

Four Torrance Men will participate the next two weeks in a dramatic demonstration of the ability of trained civilians to drop everyday tasks, mobilize with Naval Air Reserve squadrons, then within 60 hours, be making scheduled flights thousands of miles away from home.

They will be with two NAS Los Alamitos civilian-manned squadrons which will fly to Morocco and set up for operations over Mediterranean areas.

Reporting for duty with VR 771, a transport squadron, will be Major E. W. Folk, USMCR, of 5613 Calle Delicardo, a helicopter pilot with L. A. Airway in civilian life; and Lt. Cdr. John E. Wolfe, 22711 Linda Drive, an aircraft engineer with Northrop Aircraft.

Reporting with VP 778, a patrol squadron, will be Wilford G. Metzner, ADRC, of 2840 Martha St., who is self-employed; and Cyril K. Nelson, 1512 Hickory Ave., customer liaison officer for Douglas Aircraft.

The groups were mobilized at 8 a.m. Saturday and will leave for Morocco this morning.

A 24-hour liberty will be spent in Rome, Naples, Madrid or Paris during the two-week tour of special duty.

ADVANCED STUDY... Donald J. Spencer, (kneeling) 5828 Steveson St., member of the technical staff of the Kamo-Woodbridge Corp., is participating in a unique intensive course in modern industrial spectroscopy this summer at Arizona State College at Tempe. Examining the inner workings of a spectrograph varisource with Spencer is Elmer C. Hallfield, Phoenix, Arizona Highway patrolman and senior student at ASC. The school is one of only two educational institutions in the nation equipped to offer emission spectroscopy courses.

School Opens Early for New Teachers

School bells will ring a week early for nearly 900 teachers in the Torrance Unified School District, as they prepare for the return of some 23,500 students next Thursday.

New teachers—192 strong—reported Thursday for orientation sessions at the 25 schools in the district, while returning teachers will report tomorrow.

The district's new teachers reported to their schools at 9 a.m. Thursday for orientation sessions, including meetings with principals and other teachers, workshops, and a tour of district facilities. They were honored at a steak fry sponsored by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce at 4:30 p.m. in Torrance Park.

Teachers who taught in Torrance last year will report back at 8:30 p.m. Monday at their buildings. They too will hold pre-school planning sessions.

Superintendent J. H. Hall will address a general meeting of all teachers at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Dr. Groves Van Osma, former president of the San Bernardino Board of Education, will be the keynote speaker at a Wednesday general meeting at 9:45 a.m. Pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, he now is a member of the board of trustees of Redlands University.

Special Business, Industry Classes Set by Adult School

Classes in commercial art, investment securities, slide rule, public speaking, machine shop, shorthand and typing are among the courses offered by the Torrance Evening High School, 4301 Pacific Coast Hwy., room 112.

Machine Shop will be designed to help students advance in the machine shop industry. Instruction will be given in the use of the power saw, drill press, grinder, lathe, shaper, milling machine and other special tools. Open to beginning and advanced students, this class will begin at Torrance High School on Monday, Sept. 15, 7:10 p.m., and at North High School, Tuesday, Sept. 16, 7:10 p.m.

INVESTMENT Securities is developed to give the layman investor a practical working knowledge of the various types of securities, principles of investment, and the operation of the stock market. Also scheduled for 12 weeks, this class is sponsored by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, and will be held at Torrance High School Auditorium beginning Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Slide Rule, a 10-week course, will teach the theory of the slide rule, problems involving multiplication, division, squares, cubes, square roots and the application of the slide rule to trigonometric and logarithmic problems. The class is slated for Torrance High School on Thursdays beginning Sept. 18, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., room 113.

PUBLIC SPEAKING will include the fundamentals of effective speaking and communication practice in organization and delivery, development of the voice, vocabulary, diction, and poise. Planned for beginning students as well as advanced students, the course gets underway Wednesday, Sept. 17, 7 to 9:30 p.m., at South High School, 4301 Pacific Coast Hwy., room 112.

A SHORTHAND class comprising the study and review of the basic theory of Gregg Shorthand will be open to beginners and advanced students. Dictation given at various speeds will meet the student's individual need. Held in room 201 at Torrance High School, this class will take place Monday, Sept. 15, from 6 to 9 a.m. Typing classes at various locations will be available for both beginning and advanced students. At Torrance High School, an afternoon class will begin Tuesday, Sept. 16, from 4 to 6 p.m., with beginning students. Tuesday, Sept. 16, room 201. North High School will offer an evening class on Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9:30 p.m., beginning Sept. 16, room 219. The evening class at Torrance High School from 6 to 9 p.m. will begin Tuesday, Sept. 16, in room 202. South High School's class on Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. will be the voice, vocabulary, diction, and poise. Sept. 15, room C2.
