MISS DORIS AVIS
...Displays Apple Pie

Physical Ed Teacher Tells How to Make an 'Apple Pie'

She's American all the way . . . she's a third generation Californian . . . and her avid interest in life ranges from every phase of the field of sports to a deft hand with the culinary arts. She is our guest cook today—Miss Doris Avis, 906 Calle Miramar, Hollywood Riviera.

Doris, who has a master's in education from USC, 1950, has taught physical education in the Torrance Unified School District for 11 years, working at Torrance High until last year when she transferred to South High.

She is termed a "specialist" with the Torrance Recreation Dept. where she spends her summer months planning field trips and special events for the youth of the area.

During the war years, 1944-46, Doris and her sister, Pracilla Avis, who teaches at Seaside school, joined the United States Navy "Waves." Doris served at Hunter's College and the San Diego Naval Station.

Water skiing is her favorite pastime. She has an all-girl crew who maintain and keep her Mitchell Starfire speedboat in top shape. Pracilla maintains the motor on the speedboat, which is on a trailer in Doris' garage when not in use.

Doris lives with her mother, Mrs. Alice Avis, at the Hollywood Riviera address. Her father is Cal Avis of Arcadia, a son of the late William Avis, pioneer settler who traveled the Oregon Trail. She is also a descendant of the Freer family, early settlers in the El Monte area.

The Herald staff has had occasion to enjoy Doris' prize winning "apple pie." When asked to share her recipe with Herald readers of the "Favorite Recipe" column, Doris said, "I'd rather water ski than make apple pies, but here is is."

APPLE PIE

Apples (6 or 7 large)
Peel and cut in hunks
Add:
1 cup sugar
1 tbsp. flour
Cinnamon to taste.
Mix thoroughly.

½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. baking powder
