

Cattle Judging Climaxes County Fair's First Week

The Southland's foremost big poultry show in the fall festival, the Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona, winds up its first week this Friday in the junior division pigeons with judging in the important dairy cattle division scheduled throughout the day.

Major evening attraction, which continues nightly throughout the fair, is the performance in front of the grandstand of the giant Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey three-ring circus which is attracting capacity crowds. On Sundays there are three showings, at 1, 4 and 7 p.m.

ANTICIPATING AN attendance of more than a million visitors, the fair management is concentrating on presenting a diversity of gala shows and exhibits including a complete new photography show during the last half of the fair.

On Sunday, Sept. 21, rabbits and pigeons give way to

California Press to Note National Newspaper Week

California Newspapers will again this year join the press of the nation in observing National Newspaper Week, Oct. 1 to 8, with the theme and slogan, "Your Newspaper Guards Your Freedom."

Instituted nationally in 1940, this special week is sponsored annually by Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., a nationwide organization of state, regional and national press association managers. The founder of National Newspaper Week is John B. Levy, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Assn.
