

Great Books To Be Discussed In Group Sessions

Do you enjoy a fast paced discussion with intelligent people? Have you frequently put off reading the great classics of literature... books you've always felt you should read? Do you think the world today can benefit from the knowledge of the past?

If your answer to these questions is yes, the Great Books group may be precisely the stimulating activity you are seeking — and Great Books groups are looking for you!

The first bi-monthly meeting of the second year Great Books Discussion Group will be held at El Retiro Park, located in the Hollywood Riviera, Thursday, Oct. 2, from 8 to 10 p.m. Regular reading assignments give participants an opportunity to do the reading they've always planned to do and then to exchange ideas with fellow citizens at the great books round-table. Sessions are not "taught". The Great Books are the teachers. Members do the reading, then are asked questions by two co-leaders, volunteers who have been trained in the Socratic art of asking questions. Leaders do not supply the answers — the participants do. This technique makes it absolutely necessary for everyone to "think for himself."

All persons interested in joining the free Great Books Group are invited to attend the Oct. 2 organizational meeting. Further information can be obtained from co-leaders: Florence Giviale, James F. Pearson, or Chester R. Weisla.

Rambler Dealers Attend Preview

Dwight Eubank and "Chubby" Griffin, of Dwight Eubank Rambler, Inc., 1885 Torrance Blvd., will leave Sunday, Sept. 26, for San Francisco to attend a dealer preview of 1959 Ramblers.

Some 2000 Rambler dealers, salesmen and their wives will attend the four previews being held for Rambler dealers across the country.

Eubank said the 1959 Rambler will go on display at his dealership Wednesday, Oct. 8. Hosts at the previews will be George Romney, president of American Motors Corp.; Roy D. Chapin Jr., executive vice president of the automotive division, and Roy Abernethy, vice president of automotive distribution and marketing.

Dealer Previews '59 Oldsmobiles

"Local motorists will see a genuine styling sensation—the start of a new styling cycle—when they view the 1959 Oldsmobile," Ronald E. Moran of Ronald E. Moran, Inc., authorized Oldsmobile dealer here, made that statement this week after returning from Pasadena where he attended the west coast closed preview of the new 1959 Oldsmobile.

The new styling concept was announced in glamorous fashion, the dealer said, through the medium of a Broadway-type musical play with a cast of 50 singers and dancers. Leading roles were taken by Florence Henderson and Bill Hayes, Broadway and TV stars.

Among Oldsmobile officials with whom the dealer conferred were Jack Wolfgram, Victor H. Sutherland, W. O. Lampe, B. N. Barber, L. A. Grobe, Jack P. White, and E. J. Bigley.

DEER PERMITS ISSUED

The Department of Fish and Game said it has notified 7049 California hunters that their names have been drawn for nine special antlerless or either sex deer hunts this fall.

AUTO AGE

Average age of an automobile on a farm is eight years.

Safeway Stores Offering New Encyclopedia Premium

Two highly popular signs of our times—shop-it-yourself and do-it-yourself—will be used through a precedent-setting sale beginning Oct. 2 at Safeway Stores in Torrance, a company spokesman said.

Hundreds of do-it-yourself projects, complete with easy-to-understand instructions and illustrations, are featured in a comprehensive 12-volume encyclopedia on sale at Safeway Stores.

The unusual sale incorporates a budget-buy plan through which Safeway customers purchase a volume-a-week for 12 weeks. First of the sturdy, cloth-bound volumes will sell for 49 cents, each of the others for 89 cents.
