

David H. Shuler and Bride To Establish Gardena Home

Stately arrangements of white blossoms overcast with sunlight decorated the chancel of the Sunnyside Baptist Church in Los Angeles last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Elinor Kaloustian and David H. Shuler. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Deron Kaloustian of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. William Shuler, 25935 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a formal gown of white lace and satin and a tara of pearls held her illusion veil. The bride carried a white Bible topped with white roses.

Mrs. Kenneth Lamb was the maid of honor. She wore a coral crystalline gown and carried carnations and roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Lynn Giragosian, Mrs. George Henry and Miss Joanne Morgan. They were in coral gowns and their bouquets were of roses.

Kathy Dee Lamb and Donnell Lamb were the flower girls, and Michael Beard carried the rings.

The bridegroom asked Dale Franklin to stand as best man and ushers were Jim Wright, Harold Shuler and John Anderson.

Mrs. T. Judy played the organ and Mrs. Bill Plummer sang "The Lord's Prayer," "One Little Candle" and "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing."

A reception for the 300 guests was held at the church and the couple left for Santa Barbara to spend a honeymoon. Their new home will be in Gardena.

The bride, a graduate of George Washington High School, is a dental nurse in Gardena.

Her husband was graduated from Narbonne High School. He served two years with the United States Army and is now a draftsman for Douglas, El Segundo.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK
In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS
Poultry—We can—and we have—gone on and on about chickens and turkeys as the budget buys. Fryers are cheaper now than they were 10 years ago. The supply is expected to continue to the end of this year. They are better quality now because they are developed especially for meatiness, tenderness and flavor. We really get our money's worth of food value when we buy poultry.

Beef prices keep sliding down a little. Maybe some of your favorite cuts are at tempting prices. Some good values—particularly in fore-quarter cuts.

Lamb has been getting special attention from the entire industry. Retailers are running "specials." Watch for them, but in general, prices are steady.

Veal is scarce and high priced. Indications point to its going even higher.

Pork—There's a little more coming in every week. Top quality bacon and ready cooked hams to be featured in many markets.

Eggs—Southern California continues to get eggs at lower prices than most any other market in the country.

ON THE PRODUCE STANDS
Apples in the limelight. Tempting, crisp, tart beauties. New crop peering in—Jonathans, Delicious, Reddelfour, Mc-

Intosh and Pippins.
If you want to get apples at the orchards, Oak Glen growers (San Bernardino County) invite you to buy at roadside. The early varieties are ready now—the main crop two or three weeks off.

Grapes—Mostly Muscats and Tokay. End of season for Thompson Seedless.

Pears—Beautiful Bartlett. Ever try sliced fresh pears in "Waldorf" salad? Different.

Fall vegetables are slipping in beside our summer crops: Artichokes... Broccoli... Brussels Sprouts.

Cabbage—very plentiful.

Celery—abundant and top quality.

Carrots—late districts beginning to ship.

Lettuces—plenty for those colorful fruit salads.

Onions—mostly yellow varieties.

Potatoes—white, sweet and yam.

Tomatoes—You should get some "specials" on large sizes. Prices away down at wholesale.

ON THE WAY IN—Chestnuts, pomegranates, quince.
ON THE WAY OUT—Figs, peaches, plums.

A WELCOME FOR THE TEACHERS... Student Council at North High School entertained at a tea last Thursday afternoon to welcome the faculty, Rosalie Murray, commissioner of publicity, pink a message on Miss Rae Olson, business education teacher. In the line, from left, are Mike Cummings, student body president; Nancy Mooney, commissioner of activities; and Kenneth Weeks, vice president of the student body.
