Brownie Troop 1509
Members of Brownie Troop 1509 and their mothers held a picnic at Peck's Park Saturday. The troop is sponsored by the PTA of the 23rd St. School.

Explorer Post 753-X
Highest honors were recently bestowed upon two Explorer scouts of Post 753-X, North Torrance. Kenneth MacKenzie and Richard Wagner, were given the Eagle Scout award. Kenny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie, 4332 W. 178th St. and Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagner, 16826 Thornburgh Ave.

At an impressive court of honor Milton Huber, leader of the group, introduced two honorees who gave speeches on "What Scouting Has Meant to Me." Ken Rush, district scouting chairman, presented the Explorers with their Eagle pins.

The mothers of the Eagle Scouts received orchid bouquets from their sons. Mr. Huber was presented with a silver cigarette lighter as a token of thank you from the two honorees.

Three Explorers received life pins: Raymond Andioche, Ronnie Davis and Richard Zook. Color moving pictures of campouts taken and comments by David McVey were shown to the group.

Among the many guests were Ben Rush, district chairman, Roger Holmes, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge, Torrance, troop sponsor.

Turning out in full dress uniform to pay tribute to the Explorers were members of Scout Troop 753 under the leadership of Glenn Blake. Also present were parents and friends. Refreshments were served by the mothers of Explorer Scouts.

Cardinals were hosts to their parents at a beach party on the sands of Playa del Rey. Alondra Park was the setting for family outings enjoyed by the families of the Senators and Pirates. The Giants gathered at El Nido Park for a wienie roast.

Climaxing summer baseball activities was the annual fathers' game at McMaster Park.

Scoutmaster Bob Taylor invites prospective Cub Scouts residing in the North Torrance, Evelyn Carr School, and Chenshaw School areas to contact him.

Cub Scout Pack 755-C
Cub Scout Pack 755-C, sponsored by the 23rd Street School PTA, traveled to the Corriganville Movie Ranch in the San Fernando Valley Saturday, Sept. 13.

Following a picnic lunch at the ranch, the Cub Scouts visited the town of Corriganville, where they witnessed scenes of bank robberies, gun-fighters, and early Western films re-enacted for them on the streets of the town.

Among the filmland personalities were: "The Duke" (Charles Corrygan), Charlie Aldrich, "Alibi" Terrence and his piece, Runner-up was the Senators.

To celebrate the close of the baseball season four of the teams in the pack held home of Run-Tin-Tin, the troop family outings. The first place

Harbor Scouts to Hold 'University of Scouting'

A "University of Scouting" with a diploma awarded in "Bachelor of Scouting" will be held by the Harbor District of the Los Angeles Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The six-week night school course will be held for den mothers, scoutmasters, committeemen, cubmasters, institutional representatives, explorer advisors, parents, potential Scout leaders and anyone interested in Scouting.

Courses in basic and additional training will be given every Thursday from 7:30 to 9:15 p.m., followed by a coffee hour at Dana Junior High School in San Pedro. The sixth meeting will be on Nov. 6, followed by an outdoor session on Nov. 8.

Instructors in the night school of Scouting will be: Ed Calderwood, San Pedro; scoutmasters, Ken Leatherman, Gardena; den mothers, Mrs. Opal Lawson, 408 W. 231st St., Torrance.

Information and training on the new Explorer program will be given by members of the Harbor District staff, including District Executive John Walgren, 4114 W. 183rd St., Assistant District Executive Al Waterman, San Pedro, and Field Executive Maurice Hoag, San Pedro.

Registration will take place during the first two sessions, and anyone interested in Scouting is invited to attend.
